Q. IV. What Preachers have DIED since the last Conference?

A. In Great Britain, the eighteen following :-

(1.) George Lowe. He was born at Leivenshulme, near Manchester, in the year 1750; and was convinced of sin under a sermon preached by the late Rev. Samuel Bardsley, then a Local Preacher. He soon after joined the Methodist society, and commenced his itinerancy in the year 1788. In every Circuit to which he was appointed he made "full proof of his ministry," and "turned many to righteousness." His preaching was marked by a peculiar solemnity and impressiveness; and his deportment exhibited such seriousness, cheerful piety, benevolence, and rectitude, as greatly endeared him to the people among whom he laboured. In the year 1808 he was compelled, by declining health, to retire from the active duties of the ministry; and the last thirty years of his life were spent at Congleton, in the capacity of a Supernumerary. In advanced age he continued to be "a burning and shining light;" and in every thing that involved the interests of religion he displayed the ardour of youth, and the vigour of manhood. During his last illness, which was extremely painful, his mind was kept in perfect peace. He died August 19th, 1839, in the eighty-ninth year of his age.

(2.) James Buckley; who for forty-eight years occupied an honourable rank in the Wesleyan ministry, was greatly beloved by his brethren, esteemed by the people among whom he laboured, and rendered extensively useful. Having been converted to God in early life, and manifesting a strong desire for the salvation of sinners, he was called, at the age of nineteen years, to the work of the Christian ministry. His talents were considerable; his preaching was persuasive; his spirit was affectionate; his manners were amiable and conciliatory; and he was distinguished by firmness and decision of He took an active part in the formation of character. the first Wesleyan Missionary Auxiliary Society, and preached the first sermon upon that deeply affecting occasion. The growing success of the Weslevan Missions filled his heart with thankfulness to the end of his life. After having laboured with acceptance in most of our principal Circuits, and for a period of forty-one years, in 1832 he settled as a Supernumerary at Llanelly, in Wales, where his counsel and co-operation were eminently useful, and highly valued. The deep interest which he took in the Centenary movement induced him to attend the Centenary Conference at Liverpool, where he largely participated in the grateful joy of his brethren. His Saviour here granted him the desire which he had frequently expressed, "to die among his brethren." On his return from the Conference sacrament, at which he was greatly comforted, he complained of indisposition; and although medical aid was afforded, he rapidly grew worse. During a week of extreme suffering, his mind was sustained by the grace of God. With holy cheerfulness he exclaimed, "What happiness is mine! I have not one anxious thought. 'For me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.'" To many of his brethren he testified freely of the supporting love of Christ. His last words were, "For me the Saviour died." He calmly fell on sleep, August 24th, 1839, aged sixty-seven years.

- (3.) Thomas Hutton; who was converted to God in early life, and entered upon our itinerancy in the year 1789. In this work he laboured as an approved servant of Christ for thirty-eight years, during which his ministry was acceptable and useful. In the year 1827 he retired from the regular ministry, but continued to preach occasionally, and by various other means to promote the interests of true religion. After a short illness, he died in great peace and hope, on Friday, October 1st, 1839, in the seventy-third year of his age.
- (4.) EDWARD FORD; who was converted to God under the Wesleyan ministry in the twentieth year of his age, and in the year 1824 entered upon the itinerant work. Having had the advantages of a good education, and possessing the gift of ready utterance, his public labours proved very attractive in every Circuit to which he was appointed; nor did he labour in vain. His sermons, which were carefully studied, and impressively delivered, were adapted to inform the judgment, and to win sinners to Christ. A melancholy accident deprived him of his beloved wife, and occasioned the fracture of his left leg. His health, always delicate, thus received a shock which it never recovered; so that he was at length compelled to desist from his work. He enjoyed much divine consolation during his affliction, declared his firm reliance on the blood of atonement, and meekly commended his family and his soul to God. He died October 16th, 1839.

- (5.) CHARLES S. B. TAYLOR; who from a child had a serious concern for religion, and loved the ordinances of God's house. Having obtained "redemption in the blood of Christ, the forgiveness of sins," and having for some time been successfully employed as a Sunday-school Teacher, and a Local Preacher, he was received on trial as an Itinerant Preacher, and was both laborious and useful. He was attacked by fever and ague, which were followed by rapid consumption. He finished his course with joy, October 30th, 1839, in the thirty-fifth year of his age, and the seventh of his ministry.
- (6.) WILLIAM EDWARD MILLER; who was converted to God in a remarkable revival of religion in the town of Sheffield, and commenced his itinerant labours in 1799. He excelled in the art of musical composition, and performed on various instruments. These acquirements, with an agreeable person and polished manners, made him a general favourite among his fashionable companions, when he was awakened to a sense of his danger, and led to the cross of Christ. The change was deep, instantaneous, and entire. His standard of faith, spiritual privilege, and holiness, being adopted from the word of God, was elevated; and he never deviated from it, but persevered in his course, "shining more and more to the perfect day." Living faith, a spirit of prayer, fervid zeal, abstraction from the world, love to God, joy in the Holy Ghost, overflowing benevolence, and purity of heart, constituted the prominent features of his religious character. For many years he professed to enjoy the perfect love of God; and his spirit and habits were in full accordance with this testimony, and declared the exceeding grace of God which was in him. His ministry was remarkable for evangelical doctrine, simplicity, and power. His preaching was eminently "in the Spirit." God graciously owned his servant; and in all the Circuits where he travelled great good was done, and in some multitudes "believed, and turned to the Lord." He manifested an earnest desire to see believers seek and enjoy the full salvation of the Gospel, urging them forward, that they might be able to comprehend with all saints what is the length, and breadth, and depth, and height, and to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that they might be filled with all the fulness With tender affection he sympathized with them in their sufferings, visiting them at their houses, and relieving their wants. Age and infirmities obliged Mr. Miller to give up the itinerancy in 1826; but his subsequent life was not unhappy, inactive, or useless. No murmur was ever heard from his lips on account of the departure of the exciting scenes of his public life, his comparative obscurity, or the personal afflictions which he endured. To the end of his life he retained the fervour of his first love, and often exclaimed, "Happy, happy, happy! always happy." He died in the triumph of faith, November 12th, 1839, aged seventy-three years.

- (7.) George Thompson; a man eminently holy, zealous, and useful; distinguished by his pastoral habits, even more than by his pulpit ministrations; much beloved by the people among whom he laboured, and deservedly of good report in the church of God. After spending about thirty-five years in various Circuits, his increasing infirmities compelled him to retire as a Supernumerary; but he still laboured to do good, as the state of his health permitted. He had a paralytic seizure, which, in a few days, ended his life. He died in great peace, at his son's house, in Leeds, on the 15th of November, 1839, in the sixty-sixth year of his age, and the thirty-seventh of his ministry.
- (8.) RICHARD PATTISON; who, when about sixteen years of age, was awakened to a sense of his sin and danger; and soon after, by a faith of the "operation of God," was "justified freely, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus." The Holy Spirit bore witness with his spirit that he was a child of God; he was transformed by the "renewing of his mind;" and walked through life in a bright path, and in the "full assurance of hope." He offered himself as a Missionary, and in the year 1791 was appointed to the West Indies, where, for fourteen years, he laboured and suffered for the glory of God, and the salvation of souls; and was the honoured instrument of introducing many of the enslaved children of Ham into the liberty wherewith Christ makes believers free. After his return to England, he laboured diligently in different parts of the kingdom, highly esteemed for his moral and religious worth, and for the cheerful and indefatigable perseverance with which he discharged the duties of his ministry. In 1835 he became a Supernumerary, but continued to preach till within a few weeks of his death. His piety was deep, uniform, and increasing; his diligence was unremitting; and his integrity inflexible. His death was eminently peaceful and triumphant. In his last hours he thanked God, who gave him the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. He died on Sunday, December 29th, 1839, in the seventieth year of his age.

(9.) James Sykes. He was converted to God when about eighteen years of age; and under the ministry of the late Dr. Coke was induced to join himself to the Methodist society. He was accepted as an itinerant Preacher in the year 1803, and continued his public labours for thirty-two years, when, through the failure of his health, he became a Supernumerary; yet he endeavoured still to make himself useful by visiting the sick, and was much esteemed on account of his edifying conversation. His preaching was evangelical and instructive; and with the gravity appropriate to a Christian Minister he combined great urbanity and gentleness of manners. He was remarkable for the friendliness of his disposition, and was greatly beloved by the people among whom he laboured. During the last five years of his life, he was severely afflicted; but he was patient, resigned, and happy in God. In the prospect of death he was calm and unmoved, and sustained to the last by the grace of the Lord Jesus. He died in great peace, March 3d, 1840, aged seventy-two years.

- (10.) WILLIAM NOTHER; who, after having been usefully employed as a Class-Leader and Local Preacher for several years, was taken into the itinerant work at the Conference in 1803. For thirty-one years he discharged the duties of his office with fidelity and success, his labours being much owned of God. In August, 1834, increasing infirmities compelled him to become a Supernumerary, and rendered him incapable of any other service, than that of exhibiting the power of divine grace in the furnace of affliction. His piety was deep, and his preaching solid and instructive. He was modest and retiring in his spirit, faithful and affectionate as a fellow-labourer, a prudent counsellor, and an example of patient suffering. He departed this life rejoicing in hope of a glorious immortality, March 15th, 1840, in the sixty-sixth year of his age.
- (11.) RICHARD R. MOLE; who at the early age of sixteen years was convinced of sin, under the ministry of the Rev. John Anderson, and soon after experienced the renewing influence of the Spirit of God, through faith in the blood of Christ. He soon began to call sinners to repentance; and in the year 1818 entered on the work of an Itinerant Preacher. His preaching was pointed and impressive, fraught with evangelical truth, and crowned with considerable success. He was much beloved as a Pastor, and highly valued as a friend. A short time before his decease, he expressed his entire reliance on the atonement of Christ, and his full confidence in the efficacy of our Saviour's blood, to cleanse from all sin. He remained in a calm and happy state of mind, till his release. He died at Gosport, March 27th, 1840, in the forty-sixth year of his age, and the twenty-second of his ministry.

- (12.) GEORGE WILSON; who at the age of seventeen years joined the Methodist society, and was enabled to believe to the saving of his soul. In 1808 he was called into our itinerancy, the duties of which he fulfilled with scarcely any intermission for thirty-two years. a man of an excellent spirit, of genuine piety, and (though possessed of considerable mental ability) of unassuming manners. His ministry was very acceptable; and in some Circuits especially his labours were very successful. As a Superintendent he firmly, yet mildly, enforced our discipline, and diligently strove to promote the welfare of the church of Christ. He was suddenly removed by a fit of apoplexy. During the short interval which elapsed between his seizure and his death, he was composed and recollected, and peacefully entered into the joy of his Lord, April 7th, 1840, in the sixtieth year of his age.
- (13.) John Anderson, sen. He was born at Gibraltar, but at an early age was brought to England, and educated in the metropolis, where he resided at the period of his conversion. That event took place in the nineteenth year of his age, when he joined the Methodist society. He entered upon our itinerant ministry at the Conference of 1812, and soon attained a position, which he always preserved, amongst the most respected and useful Ministers of the Connexion. Redemption by the blood of Jesus was a theme which had laid strongly hold of the warmest affections of his heart. The glories of His person,-the efficacy of His atonement,-the sanctifying and renewing power of His Spirit,-were the great themes upon which he ever delighted to expatiate. Nor could any other person with greater propriety adopt the language of the Apostle, -- "God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world." His character as a Minister of the Gospel was, to a great extent, moulded and exalted by his rich experience as a Christian. Being a person of quick and lively apprehension, he was well qualified so to lay hold of the sense of Holy Writ as frequently to bring out in his ministry its nicer shades of meaning, and touches of beauty. And had his powers of discrimination subsisted principally as the characteristics of his mind, they would of themselves have secured to his pulpit exertions a high scale of appreciation amongst intelligent hearers. In addition to these, however, he was richly gifted with imaginative faculties of an order which admirably qualified him to illustrate and adorn any subject to which his attention was seriously directed. The remarkably prompt manner in which he could call these powers into action rendered him a valuable and efficient Missionary speaker. On the platform, indeed, it was that he particularly excelled, and almost invariably succeeded in enkindling in the bosoms of multitudes an ardour in that sacred cause which was like unto his own. sessed of such rare and excellent qualifications, it is not surprising that during a series of years he was appointed to several of the most important Circuits in the Connexion; and by his death our ministerial ranks have sustained no ordinary loss. But it is consoling to know that if the natural term of his life were shortened by the ardour of his spirit, and the energy of his exertions, he died (as the important offices which he sustained at the close of his life abundantly testify) in the full possession of the esteem and confidence of his brethren in the ministry; and his dying testimony demonstrates that he also departed "in sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life." This was given shortly before his departure, in these memorable words: "I am upon the Rock! The blood of Christ, applied by faith, through the power of the eternal Spirit, cleanseth from all sin." He fell asleep in Jesus April 11th, 1840, aged forty-nine vears.

(14.) James Anderson; who began to travel in the year 1789, and continued to labour in the itinerancy until 1828, when he became a Supernumerary. His increasing infirmities rendered it necessary for him to retire from all public ministerial duties during some of the latter years of his life. In his last illness he expressed firm confidence in the truth of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. He died April 13th, 1840, in the seventy-third year of his age.

- (15.) Martin Burrows; who in early life united himself with the Wesleyan society, and became a subject of converting grace. He was fervent in spirit; and on becoming a Preacher, laboured with zeal, fidelity, and success. It pleased the Lord, whose "ways are past finding out," to take his servant to an early rest. A short time before Mr. Burrows expired, he said, "If I live, I live unto the Lord; and if I die, I die unto the Lord: whether I live, therefore, or die, I am the Lord's." He finished his course in peace, April 21st, 1840, in the twenty-third year of his age, and the second of his itinerancy.
- (16.) James Ash; who entered upon our itinerant work in the year 1813, laboured among us fifteen years, and was rendered useful in many Circuits. He was reduced by disease to a state of great weakness, both of body and mind, from which he never recovered. He died May 14th, 1840, aged fifty-one years.
- (17.) James Wood; who was born at West-Buckland, in Somersetshire, July 18th, 1751, O.S. At the early age of twelve years he was convinced of his sinfulness and danger under a sermon preached by Mr. Jesse, a pious Clergyman of the Church of England, and a personal friend of Mr. Wesley. He joined the Methodist society in the year 1769, and soon after found peace with God by faith in our Lord Jesus Christ. His deep piety, active zeal, and promising talents, recommended him as a suitable person to be employed in our itinerant ministry; upon which he entered, under the sanction of our venerated Founder, in the year 1773. For the long space of fifty-three years he continued his public labours, enjoying the full confidence and cordial affection of his brethren; preaching the Gospel with great fidelity, earnestness, diligence, and success; and exercising the pastoral charge to the edification of all the societies that were placed under his care. He sustained the highest offices of trust and responsibility in our Connexion, being twice appointed to the Presidency of the Conference. Mr. Wood was a man of a meek and quiet spirit, and of sound judgment, a diligent student of the Bible, an instructive and edifying Preacher, and of inflexible uprightness; walking closely with God, and reflecting in his daily deportment, and in the various relations of life, the power and efficacy of divine grace. On his retirement from the duties of our itinerancy, he was still "an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity." In proportion to his strength, he laboured, to the end of his life, to promote the spiritual good of all around him; and under the infirmities of protracted age, his holy cheerfulness and resignation never forsook him. On the day of his death he said, "I am in the valley; but God is with me. I dare not doubt. Blessed be his name." His last words were, "I have meat to eat, that the world knoweth not of." This holy and venerable man, and honoured Minister of the Lord Jesus, entered into the joy of his Lord, on the 17th of June, in the eighty-ninth year of his age.

(18.) John Wiggan, a native of Colne, in Lancashire. He was brought to the saving knowledge of God at an early period of life, joined our society, and was particularly distinguished by his steady and consistent conduct. After labouring with considerable acceptance as a Local Preacher, he was called into the work of the ministry in the year 1835. He was firmly attached to our doctrines and discipline, a colleague of exemplary prudence and fidelity, unassuming in his manners, of an affectionate disposition, pastoral in his habits, and faithful in the discharge of his ministerial duties. His preaching was plain, practical, and useful. During his affliction he was patient, and resigned to the will of God; and when informed of his danger, said, "All is right." He died in great peace, July 17th, 1840, in the twenty-eighth year of his age.

2. In Ireland, four, viz.,-

- (1.) ALEXANDER MOORE. He was of a mild temper, and moral habits; yet he remained a stranger to experimental religion till he was more than twenty years of About that period he was induced by a zealous convert from Popery to attend the Wesleyan ministry, whereby he was deeply convinced of sin, and led to feel that he must be pardoned or perish. In his distress of mind he was directed to the blood of atonement, on which he was enabled to repose his weary spirit; and "being justified by faith, he found peace with God, through our Lord Jesus Christ." Shortly after he began to warn others to "flee from the wrath to come." His efforts to do good in this way were much owned of God in the conversion of sinners. At the Conference of 1788, he received his first appointment to a Circuit; and continued for twenty-five years to labour with diligence and success. But having suffered much through the alarm and perils of the Irish Rebellion of 1798, his constitution became so enfeebled that in 1813 he was unable any longer to remain in the regular work, and settled as Supernumerary in the Wicklow Circuit, where he spent his remaining days and strength in the service of his divine Master. In his latter years he endured much personal and family affliction, with patient submission to the will of God. He was a truly pious man, of plain and simple manners, a fervent lover of Methodism, both in its doctrines and discipline, beloved by those who knew him, and well received and useful in the Circuits where he travelled. During his last illness, his confidence in God remained unshaken: while passing through the valley of the shadow of death, the Lord was with him, to comfort and defend; and with "a good hope through grace," he finished his earthly course October 3d, 1839, aged seventy-seven vears.
- (2.) ROBERT WILSON; who was born at Lislea, near Omagh, in October, 1778. Through the instrumentality of the late Rev. Booth Coldwell, a pious Presbyterian Minister, he was awakened, and led earnestly to seek by faith, until he found, redemption through the blood of Christ, the forgiveness of sins. Having afforded satisfactory evidence of his conversion to God, and call to the Christian ministry, he was received into the regular itinerancy in the year 1810, wherein he laboured successfully till 1830, when, through bodily infirmity, he was compelled to retire, and become a Supernumerary; yet he continued to preach, as his health permitted, till within a few weeks of his death. His knowledge of scripture truth rendered his sermons, which were plain and pointed, very useful in the awakening and conversion of sinners. The prayer-meetings with which he generally closed his evening services were attended by the unction of the Holy Spirit, and made the means of salvation to many souls. He was distinguished by his happy art of introducing and sustaining conversation to the use of edifying, which tended to increase his usefulness, and made his intercourse truly profitable among the people in the different Circuits where he travelled. "The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ," which he proclaimed to others, supported him during his last illness, preserving his mind in perfect peace, and increasing his foretaste of "the powers of the world to come." On the morning of his death he dressed himself, sat down in his chair, and without any visible emotion exchanged worlds, October 29th, 1839.

(3.) John Dinnen. He was born in Lisburn, in the county of Antrim. In early life he was converted to God, and evinced the reality of the change by holy tempers, zeal for the divine glory, and tender concern for perishing men. He was called to the Christian ministry in 1785; and for thirty-six years he laboured with much acceptance, and was signally owned of God in turning many to righteousness. His piety was deep and ardent, his attachment to the doctrines of Wesleyan Methodism strong, and his administration of its discipline prompt and impartial. He was a man pre-eminently "full of faith and of the Holy Ghost." On going to a Circuit, he was in the habit of saying, "Now, we shall have a revival!" Nor did this at all savour of enthusiasm; for he earnestly recommended, and diligently practised, all scriptural means for the purpose; and especially laid hold upon the promises of God in the spirit of the patriarch, and cried, "I will not let thee go unless thou bless me;" and, like him, he prevailed. When, through declining health, he was obliged to retire from the itinerant work, as his strength permitted he went about doing good, teaching publicly, and from house to house. Through a long and painful affliction, which he endured with patience, his faith in the atonement became increasingly strong, and his communion with God intimate and uninterrupted. To a friend, shortly before his death, he said, "Blessed be God, I have had neither fear nor doubt these many years." The last words he was heard to utter were, "Precious, precious Jesus!" He fell asleep in Jesus, at Coleraine, in the eighty-sixth year of his age, and the fifty-fifth of his ministry, on the 17th of December, 1839.

(4.) JOHN M'ARTHUR. In his youth he became a member of the Wesleyan society, and was soon, through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, blessed with the knowledge of salvation by the remission of sins, and enabled to rejoice in hope of eternal life. Shortly after his conversion, he began to recommend to others the Saviour whom he had found to be precious to his own soul. His labours as a Local Preacher were owned of God in the awakening and conversion of sinners; and in the year 1792 he was, after due examination, called into the public ministry, and appointed to a Circuit. He continued to travel and labour with great diligence, regularity, and usefulness, till the year 1818, when he was compelled, by severe disease, to retire from that field of labour in which his soul had delighted. During more than twenty-one succeeding years, he resided in the Omagh and Londonderry Circuits, preaching as his health permitted, and exemplifying by the holiness of his life and conversation the truth of the doctrines which he taught. As a Christian, his piety was deep and uniform.

He was a kind and faithful friend, an agreeable and intelligent companion, a good experimental and practical Preacher. His sermons were generally enriched by numerous and suitable portions of Scripture, which he quoted with the strictest accuracy. He was a man of God, ready at all times to promote to the utmost of his ability the temporal and spiritual welfare of those with whom he had any intercourse. After years of much affliction, the conclusion of his life was calm and peaceful. Blessed with a hope full of immortality, and surrounded by an affectionate and pious family, he fell asleep in Jesus, at Londonderry, March 2d, 1840, in the seventy-eighth year of his age. "Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright; for the end of that man is peace."

3. In our Foreign Missions, five have died, viz.,-

- (1.) WILLIAM JUFF. He was a Jollof by birth, and was brought as a slave to the Gambia, in Western Africa. Having come under the sound of the Gospel, preached by the Wesleyan Missionaries, he was speedily freed from spiritual bondage, by obtaining that liberty with which Christ makes his people free. He possessed great teachableness of disposition, and soon attained the elements of an English education. Being full of love towards his perishing brethren, and of zeal for the glory of God, he began to call sinners to repentance; and having been made useful to several of his countrymen, to whom he preached in his native language, he was called to the honourable employment of an Assistant Missionary. In this high and holy vocation he profited much, whilst his amiable temper and upright conduct rendered him beloved and respected by all around him. He laboured at St. Mary's for about five years, and died on the 1st of March, 1839.
 - (2.) John Bell; who in early life was converted to God, and at the age of eighteen years began to call sinners to repentance. At the Conference of 1836 he commenced his itinerant labours; and in 1838 entered on the Missionary work, the arduous duties of which, for the few months during which he was spared, he discharged with much acceptance. He suffered with Christian patience and resignation the malignant yellow fever; and at the end of eight days fell asleep in Jesus, August 16th, 1839, aged twenty-seven years.

- (3.) James Parkinson; who, at the Conference of 1838, received an appointment to St. Mary's on the Gambia, where his labours were very useful, and will be long remembered. At the time of his decease there was no other Missionary on the station; but there is sufficient evidence that he died, as he had lived, in the exercise of faith in his Saviour, whom he honoured in his life, and in whose service he often expressed his willingness to die. The malignant fever, which terminated his life on the 8th of September, 1839, was also fatal to Mrs. Parkinson, who died a few days afterwards.
- (4.) WILLIAM MURRAY. He was a native of Barnard-Castle, Durham, and in early life was made a subject of saving grace. Soon after his conversion, under a conviction of duty to God and his church, he offered himself as a candidate for our Mission work, and was accepted by the Conference. For several years he laboured in New-Brunswick and Nova-Scotia, with benefit to many souls. In 1834 he was appointed to the Newfoundland District, where he preached the Gospel with zeal and acceptance in the Harbour-Grace and Port-de-Grave Circuits. During his stay in the latter Circuit, his health became so impaired that his immediate removal from the island was necessary. After visiting his native land, and the West Indies, without any improvement in his health, his afflictions were augmented by the death of his beloved wife, who exchanged mortality for life, in St. John, New-Brunswick. From that time his affliction increased; but his consolation in the Lord became stronger. To many of his brethren he gave satisfactory evidence of his well-grounded hope in his Redeemer; and terminated his extreme sufferings on the 16th of January, 1840.
 - (5.) John Spinney, a young man of undoubted piety. At the Conference of 1835 he was appointed to the Feejee Mission; and, in the honourable work of preaching the Gospel to those who had hitherto been entirely ignorant of divine truth, he laboured with faithfulness and success. In October, 1838, symptoms of pulmonary disease made their appearance; and all attempts to arrest the progress of the malady proved ineffectual. He lingered until the 10th of February, 1840, when he died, at Sydney, in triumph over the fear of death, and in the prospect of eternal life, in the twenty-seventh year of his age.

- Q. V. Are there any objections to any of our Preachers?

Q. IX. Who is appointed the PRESIDENT OF THE NEXT CONFERENCE IN IRELAND, to be held in Cork, on Friday, the 25th of June, 1841?

A. Our President, the Rev. Robert Newton, who, if unavoidably prevented, has authority to nominate a substitute.

N.B. 1. The REV. JOHN BOWERS, and one of the Missionary Secretaries, are appointed to accompany the President to the next Irish Conference.

2. The President is requested to visit Scotland, at whatever time of the year shall be most agreeable to him; and as many of the Preachers stationed in Scotland as conveniently can, are directed to meet him at such times and places as he shall appoint. The Rev. Dr. Bunting, or the Secretary, is desired to accompany the President on his visit to Scotland.

3. The PRESIDENT is requested to attend the next Annual Meeting of the Second South-Wales District Committee, to be held at Merthyr-Tydvill in the spring of 1841. The REV. RICHARD WADDY is appointed to accompany the President on his visit to the Second South-Wales District-Meeting.

The PRESIDENT and the REV. JOSEPH TAYLOR are appointed to attend the meeting of the North-Wales District Committee, which will be held, about the same period, at Dolgelly. Two of the English Preachers stationed in Wales shall attend the District-Meetings of the Welsh Preachers, and two of the Welsh brethren shall attend the District-Meeting of the English Preachers in Wales.

Q. X. Who are the Committee for Guarding our PRIVILEGES during the ensuing year?

DR. SANDWITH, JAMES HUNTER, THOMAS F. RANCE,

W. GRIFFITH, and JOHN M. CAMPLIN, ESQRS., of London, are requested to act as a Medical Sub-Committee for the Wesleyan Missions.

The following Gentlemen are appointed a Sub-Committee to meet prior to the next Conference, to report on the affairs of the Polynesian Missionary Ship:—John Irving, Esq., of Bristol; Thomas Sands, Esq., and Michael Ashton, Esq., of Liverpool; Christopher Wawn, Esq., of South-Shields; Robert Campion, Esq., of Whitby; and Messrs. Lidgett, Ward, Chadwick, and Weller, of London; with the General Treasurers and General Secretaries of the Society, and the Rev. Messrs. Lawry, Roberts, and Horton;—with power to add to their number.

3. The cordial thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to Thomas Farmer, Esq., and the Rev. John Scott, for their important services as General Treasurers of the Wesleyan Missionary Society during the last year; and they are respectfully requested to accept that office for the year ensuing.

4. The cordial thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to the Rev. Dr. Bunting, the Rev. John Beecham, the Rev. Dr. Alder, and the Rev. Elijah Hoole, the General Secretaries, for their very acceptable and useful services to our Missions during the past year.

5. The Conference unanimously concurs in the following Resolution of the General Missionary Committee,—which was also sanctioned by the Committee of Review, at its Meeting held in Newcastle, on Tuesday, July 28th,—as a just and proper acknowledgment of the services rendered by Dr. Alder, in his recent visit to our Societies and Missions in British North America:—

"Dr. Alder, on his return from his recent visit to the Society's Mission in British North-America, favoured the Committee, at two successive Meetings, with a very able and highly interesting report of his various travels and exertions in promoting the interests of the Society, and the important objects for which he was deputed by the Committee; on which it was their pleasing duty on this occasion to accompany their cordial welcome of Dr. Alder on his return to this country, and to his regular official labours among us, by the devout expression of their gratitude to Almighty God for the preservation of Dr. and Mrs. Alder, during their long absence from home,—for his blessing on Dr. Alder's visit and labours,—and for the successful results of his able and judicious endeavours to secure the rights and interests of the Indian Tribes connected with us, and to obtain from the Government of Upper Canada the payment, which had for a while been suspended, of the large arrears of the pecuniary grant due to the Society on account of its Indian and other Missions in that Province.

" Resolved unanimously, That the Committee feel it

"That the Committee also feel it their gratifying duty to present to Dr. Alder, together with their most sincere congratulations on his return to England, their cordial thanks for the great ability, discretion, and fidelity with which he has executed the difficult and diversified duties connected with his recent mission, and to assure him of their great satisfaction with the report he has made, and of their highest affection and esteem."

6. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. Joseph Stinson, for his faithful and indefatigable services during the last seven years, as the Superintendent of our Missions, or the President of the Conference.

in Upper Canada.

7. The Conference unanimously authorizes and approves the proposed visit of Mr. Freeman to as many of our larger Societies and Congregations as the limited period of his stay in England will admit, in behalf of the special appeal for the new and important Mission to Ashantee.

8. At the several Financial District-Meetings, which shall be held in September, arrangements shall be made for holding Missionary Meetings throughout the respective Districts, especially those in the Circuit-Towns, during the ensuing year; so that such Meetings may be held at the least possible expense: and the District Treasurers and Secretaries shall be earnestly invited to attend the said District-Meetings, when such arrangements are under consideration. The plan for each District, thus provisionally arranged, shall be immediately transmitted by the Chairman to the several Preachers who form the Deputation for that District, as appointed in the List of Deputations hereafter subjoined. The said Preachers are required to correspond with the Chairman on the subject forthwith; in order that such final arrangements may be adopted, by mutual consent, as to the exact time of holding the Missionary Meetings for the Circuits of each District, as will prevent in future the great inconvenience which has resulted from the absence, on any Missionary Deputation, of more than one Preacher from the same Circuit at the same time. It is requested that a copy of each arrangement thus formed be forwarded to the General Secretaries in London. It is also recommended, that one of the usual Quarterly Meetings of each District Auxiliary Committee be summoned during the sitting of the Annual District-Meeting, for the purpose of investigating the expenses incurred at Anniversaries, &c.

9. The Chairmen of Districts are requested, immediately after the District-Meetings in May, to send to the General Secretaries of the Missions a copy of that part of their District-Minutes containing the names, qualifications, &c., of those Candidates who may offer themselves for Mission work.

10. The following Preachers and other Friends are particularly invited to attend the Special Meeting of the Missionary Committee, which will be held in Manchester, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of Tuesday, July 27th, 1841, according to the Seventeenth Article of the "Laws and Regulations of the Wesleyan Missionary Society;" viz., the Rev. Messrs. Richard Waddy, John Brown, sen., John Hobson, Joseph Fowler, Maximilian Wilson, Philip C. Turner, Joseph Entwisle, sen., Thomas Rogers, William Naylor;—with G. R. Chappell, Esq., T. P. Bunting, Esq., Mr. Finney Johnson, of Manchester; Thomas Crook, Esq., of Liverpool; Thomas Allen, Esq., of Macclesfield; Alexander Suter, Esq., of Halifax; W. G. Scarth, Esq., of Leeds; Mr. William Turner, of Derby; Thomas Cope, Esq., of Barnsley.—

N.B. This Meeting is open to the Treasurers and Secretaries of the different Auxiliary and Branch Societies in the vicinity, and to such other leading country friends of the Methodist Missions as can conveniently attend; and their presence is hereby respectfully requested.

SCHOOLS.

Q. XII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference respecting the affairs of our Schools?

A. 1. John Irving, Esq., of Bristol, and the Rev. Philip C. Turner, are re-appointed the General Treasurers, and the Rev. William Barton is re-appointed the General Secretary, for the ensuing year.

2. The following persons are appointed as the General Committee for the ensuing year:—The President and Secretary of the Conference, the General Treasurers and the Secretary of the School-Fund, the Rev. John Davis, James Dixon, Joseph Fowler, Edmund Grindrod, Thomas Jackson, Samuel Jackson, William Jackson, sen., Isaac Keeling, Theophilus Lessey, James Methley, Peter M'Owan, John Rigg, John Scott, Barnard Slater, Richard Treffry, William Vevers, and Daniel Walton; with Messrs. T. Crook, Sands, Ashton, and Vernon, of Liverpool; James Wood, T. P. Bunting, James Fildes, and William Allen, of Manchester; James Heald and James Marshall, of Stockport; Richard Bealey and Robinson Kay, of Bury; Peter Rothwell, of Bolton; W. Hopwood, of Burnley; Thomas Bowers, of Chester; and Joshua Thorley and Martin Swindells, of Macclesfield.

3. The following are the Local Committees for the ensuing year :-

KINGSWOOD SCHOOL.—The Rev. Jacob Stanley, sen., Chairman; Rev. Robert Smith, Local Treasurer; Rev. William L. Thornton, Secretary; Rev. Messrs. Abraham E. Farrar, Josiah Hill, F. Calder, J. Shoar, W. Griffith, sen., John Lomas, John Brown, sen., and John Evans; —with Messrs. Capel, Exley, A.M., John W. Hall, A. Harper, T. Harris, Irving, Westcott, and J. Wood, of Bristol; and Messrs. Liddiard, Foort, and Palmer, of Bath.

Woodhouse-Grove School.—The President of the Conference, Rev. Robert Newton, Chairman; Rev. George Morley, Local Treasurer; Rev. Edward Walker, Secretary; Rev. Messrs. A. Bell, Cusworth, Strachan, Bowers, Galland, Barrett, Leach, Sugden, Bacon, R. Wood, P. Garrett, J. Roberts, sen., F. A. West, Pilter, W. W. Stamp, Shrewsbury, Key, E. Jackson, Radcliffe, Waterhouse, and Allen;—with Messrs. Holmes, Calvert, Cheeseborough, and Walker, of Bradford; Messrs. Scarth, John Burton, Joshua Burton, W. Smith, Hargreave, Beverley, C. Dove, J. Musgrave, and J. Howard, of Leeds; Messrs. Swale and Suter, of Halifax; Mr. Stocks, of Wakefield; Messrs. Shaw and Mallinson, of Huddersfield; and Mr. Sutcliffe, of Willow-Hall.

4. The Private Subscriptions and Public Collections for the School-Fund are to be made in every Circuit in the month of September; and the Conference repeats and urges its recommendation to our Lay-Friends to render assistance to the Preachers in procuring the Private Subscriptions. The sums allowed to Preachers stationed in Circuits, for the education of their daughters, and of such of their sons as cannot obtain admission into the Schools, may be paid out of the amount raised in the Circuits where they are stationed, if sufficient for that purpose. In other cases, we repeat our Minute made in 1820: "The allowances for education do not become due until the next Conference, and are not to be paid in advance, except so far as the Collections and Subscriptions to the Fund in any Circuit will meet the claims of that Circuit. But when the Governors of the Schools have been fully enabled to provide for their current expenditure, if a surplus remain in the hands of the Treasurers, they may make such remittances in advance to Circuits in which the claims are large, and the contributions small, as may suit their convenience."

5. The usual allowance for the education of the children of Deceased and Supernumerary Preachers shall, when the claim has been sanctioned by the District-Committee, be received from the Treasurers of the Auxiliary Fund; but the charge for educating those sons of Deceased or Supernumerary Preachers, who are placed at either of our Schools, shall be borne entirely by the School-Fund.

6. The names of the boys and girls to whom the Education Allowance is granted shall no longer be printed in the Annual Report: but the General Treasurers and Secretary shall furnish every Superintendent with an accurate List of them.

7. Every Superintendent is required to send to the General Treasurers a particular account of the sums contributed in his Circuit to the Fund, and of the claims made upon it; stating distinctly the names of the children for whose education the usual allowance has been paid, and the exact number of years during which the allowance has been received: and it is further expressly required that such accounts, with any balance then in hand due to the Fund, shall be sent not later than the 15th of November. All communications are to be addressed to the Rev. Philip C. Turner, Methodist Chapel, Birmingham.

8. The Accounts for the year shall be closed on the 24th of June, and audited before they are presented to the General Committee at the next Conference; and, in order to this, every Superintendent is required, at the May District-Meeting, finally to correct his List of Contributions sent in November, and to pay at the same time all additional Subscriptions or Collections; and the Financial Secretary shall send to the Treasurers such corrections, with an extract from the District-Minutes of every thing which relates to the School-Fund. This communication shall be made not later than the 31st of May.

9. At every District-Meeting, on the day on which the Circuit-Stewards are in attendance during the transaction of the financial business of the District, the Chairman is directed to inquire particularly into the amount of the Subscriptions and Collections raised for the School-Fund in each Circuit, and to compare them with the lists of the preceding year. Where any material deficiency, or want of due exertion, shall appear, the case shall be specially reported in the District-Minutes, and be brought by the Chairman before the ensuing Conference.

10. The thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to John Irving, Esq., and to the Rev. Philip C. Turner, the late General Treasurers, and to the Rev. William Barton, the General Secretary, for their efficient discharge of the duties of their offices in the past year.

11. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the late Local Committees and Secretaries of the Schools, for their faithful and able attention to the affairs of the Schools during the year; to the Governors and Governesses of the Schools, for their kind and diligent attention to everything affecting the comfort and welfare of the children placed under their care; and to the Examiners, for their very efficient discharge of the duties which they kindly consented to undertake.

12. A regular Quarterly Correspondence shall take place between the Secretaries of the two Schools relative to all matters connected with the appointment and the salaries of the Teachers, and the general management and state of the Schools.

13. The cordial thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to the following contributors of five pounds and upwards, for their liberal aid to the Fund:—

BOOK AFFAIRS.

Q. XIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference in reference to the affairs of the Book-Room?

A. 1. The Rev. John Farrar is re-appointed the Secretary to the London Book-Committee for the year ensuing.

2. The Rev. John Brown, sen., of Bath, is reappointed the Editor of the Child's Magazine. Communications intended for this department should be addressed to him, at No. 14, City-Road, London.

3. The Rev. Robert Newstead is re-appointed the Secretary to the Methodist Tract-Committee. Communications intended for this department should be addressed to him, at No. 14, City-Road, London.

4. The General Book-Committee, which is appointed to meet on the Friday morning previous to the next Conference, shall consist of our President and Secretary, and all the Members of the London Book-Committee who may be duly authorized to attend the next Conference; with the Rev. Messrs. Alexander Bell, John Brown, sen., Joseph Cusworth, James Dixon, Samuel Dunn, Joseph Entwisle, sen., Thomas Eastwood, James Everett, William France, Joseph Fowler, John Hobson, Hugh Hughes, Samuel Jackson, William Jackson, William Leach, William Lord, George Marsden, George Morley, John Rigg, sen., Barnard Slater, Robert Smith, John S. Stamp, Jacob Stanley, Joseph Taylor, Philip C. Turner, William Vevers, Richard Waddy, Samuel D. Waddy, Francis A. West, Maximilian Wilson, Robert Wood, Daniel Walton, and the Representatives of the Irish Conference.

5. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. Thomas Jackson, the Editor, and also to the Rev. George Cubitt, the Assistant Editor, for the satisfactory manner in which they have discharged their duties during the year.

6. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. John Mason, our Book-Steward, for his successful management of the duties of his office during the past year.

7. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. John Farrar, for his services as Secretary of the Book-Committee; to the Rev. John Brown, sen., for his services as Editor of the Child's Magazine; to the Rev. Robert Newstead, for his services as Secretary of the Tract-Committee; and to the London Book-Committee, for their judicious and faithful direction of the Affairs of the Book-Room during the past year.

CHAPEL AFFAIRS.

Q. XIV. What are the Resolutions of the Conference with regard to the General Chapel-Fund, the Chapel Loan-Fund, and the Centenary Chapel Relief-Fund?

A. 1. The cordial thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to Thomas Marriott, Esq., and the Rev. Samuel Jackson, the Treasurers of the General Chapel-Fund, for their diligent and faithful services during the past year; and Thomas Marriott, Esq., and the Rev. William Kelk, are hereby appointed to that office for the next year.

2. The cordial thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to James Heald, Esq., the Treasurer of the Loan-Fund, for his highly important and valuable services during the past year.

3. The cordial thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to John Burton, Esq., of Manchester, the Treasurer of the Centenary Relief-Fund, for his faithful and diligent services during the past year.

4. The thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to the Lay-Members of the Loan-Fund and Centenary Relief-Fund Sub-Committees, and especially to Mr. Thomas Crook, of Liverpool, and Mr. J. D. Burton, of Manchester, for their kind and efficient services during the past year.

5. The thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to the Rev. Robert Wood, and Mr. William Robinson, Secretaries of the Loan-Fund; and to the Rev. Francis A. West, Rev. Benjamin B. Waddy, and Mr. John Chubb, the Secretaries of the Centenary Relief-

Fund.

6. The Committee of Distribution of the General Chapel-Fund, which will meet in Manchester on the Monday previous to the next Conference, shall consist of our President and Secretary, the Treasurers and Secretaries of the General Chapel-Fund, the Treasurer and Secretaries of the Chapel Loan-Fund, and the Treasurer and Secretary of the Centenary Chapel Relief-Fund, the Secretary of the Chapel-Building Committee; the Members of the above Committees; the Rev. Messrs. Atherton, Dr. Bunting, J. Bowers, J. Cusworth, J. Davis, J. Dixon, J. Fowler, W. Lord, G. Marsden, J. Pilter, R. Reece, J. Scott, J. Stanley, R. Treffry, and M. Wilson; with fifteen Trustees, (not being Travelling Preachers,) to be chosen by the June Quarterly Meetings, one from each of the following Circuits, viz., the four Manchester and the two Liverpool Circuits; Stockport (North), Macclesfield, Chester, Bolton, Halifax, Huddersfield, and the first, second, and third Leeds Circuits.

7. The Sub-Committee of the Loan-Fund to secure the honourable fulfilment of the engagements of the Connexion with parties who have furnished Loans, shall consist of the following persons, to meet as often as they may find it expedient; viz., the Rev. Messrs. Joseph Taylor, Robert Wood, John Rigg, and Francis A. West; with Messrs. James Heald, John Fernley, Thomas Crook, and William Robinson. James Heald, Esq., is requested to continue his services as Treasurer, and Mr. William

Robinson as Secretary.

8. The CENTENARY CHAPEL RELIEF COMMITTEE for the distribution of the Grant from the Centenary Fund, for the aid of Distressed Chapels, shall consist of the following persons; viz., the President and Secretary of the Conference, the Treasurer and Secretaries of the Centenary Fund, the Treasurers and Secretaries of the General Chapel and Loan Funds; with the Rev. Messrs. Dr. Bunting, Joseph Cusworth, James Dixon, James Heaton, Timothy Ingle, Peter M'Owan, George Marsden, James Methley, John Rigg, John Scott, Barnard Slater, John Smith, 3d, and Joseph Taylor; with Messrs. A. Braik, G. R. Chappell, John Fernley, and J. P. Westhead, of Manchester; M. Ashton and T. Crook, of Liverpool; R. Bealey, of Bury; P. Rothwell, of Bolton; T. Bowers, of Chester; T. Farmer, of London; S. Bennett, of Bedford; A. Suter, of Halifax; and Thomas Walker, of Stockton. John Burton, Esq., of Manchester, is requested to continue his services as Treasurer of the Centenary Chapel Relief-Fund; and the Rev. F. A. West, and Mr. J. D. Burton, are appointed Secretaries for the ensuing year.

All letters of application for Final Grants, accompanied by Schedules properly filled up and signed, are to be addressed (post-paid) to the Rev. F. A. West, Methodist Chapel, Halifax. The Treasurer and Secretaries are to be considered as ex-officio members of the Committee.

This Committee (who have power to add to their number, if they deem it expedient) are directed to consider the applications of the Trustees of distressed Chapels for relief by Final Grants, for the reduction of debt, and to decide what proportions of the amount to be liquidated shall be raised by the Trustees and friends of each Chapel to be relieved. The Committee are requested to hold their first Meeting, in the Vestry of Oldham-street Chapel, Manchester, on the 7th day of October next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon; and to meet subsequently by such adjournments as they from time to time shall deem expedient.

9. Resolved unanimously, That the thanks of the Conference be most respectfully and cordially presented to Mrs. Bealey, for having built, at Ratcliffe-Close in the Bury Circuit, a commodious and excellent Chapel, which has cost about £4,000, and which she has most generously given, free from debt, to the Wesleyan-Methodist Connexion, having settled it upon Trust on the plan of the Model-Deed.

10. To ensure greater punctuality in the transmission of the Collections and Subscriptions to the General Chapel-Fund, the Chairmen of Districts are hereby directed to make inquiry, in their respective District-Meetings, whether the Rule requiring such Collections and Subscriptions to be transmitted to the Treasurers before the end of March has been observed, and to insert an answer to that inquiry in the District-Minutes.

11. The Conference directs that every application to the General Chapel-Fund Committee shall be accompanied by a regular Chapel-Schedule, duly filled up, and signed by the Chairman of the District, in the District-Meeting: and it further directs that the said Schedules shall be forwarded to the General Treasurers of the Chapel-Fund, before July 1st; and that all cases in which this latter direction shall not have been complied with shall be postponed for one year.

12. The General Chapel-Fund Committee shall annually revise the cases recorded in the Minute-Book of the Chapel-Building Committee, and call for proof of the fulfilment of the prescribed conditions.

13. Resolved, That, for the future, it shall be a condition of affording relief to any Chapel case, that the Trustees shall engage permanently to subscribe to the General Chapel-Fund.

14. Resolved, That, in order to a more complete examination of the cases presented for the sanction of the District-Meetings for relief from the General Chapel-Fund, Schedule-Books be provided for every District, in which the particulars of each application shall be registered; and that the Chairmen of Districts be required to compare such Schedules year by year, and to see that proper local exertions have been made for the relief of each case, before it is presented to the District-Meeting, especially by the best efforts on Anniversary occasions, without which no case can be entertained by the General Chapel-Fund Committee.

CHAPEL-BUILDING COMMITTEE.

Q. XV. Who are the Chapel-Building Committee (without whose previous consent, obtained in writing, no chapel, whether large or small, is to be erected, purchased, or enlarged) for the ensuing year?

A. 1. The Rev. Messrs. Joseph Taylor, J. Rigg, R. Wood, F. A. West, James Dixon, Peter M'Owan, John Smith, James Methley, Thomas Dickin, B. Slater, T. Ingle, W. Jackson; with Dr. P. Wood, Messrs. James Wood, James Heald, John Fernley, G. R. Chappell, T. P. Bunting, W. Allen, J. Lomas, Charles Cooper, Alexander Braik, and R. Bealey.

2. This Committee (who have power to add to their number, if they deem it expedient) are requested to meet regularly on the first Wednesday in every month; and no permission to erect, purchase, or enlarge any chapel shall be granted, unless at least seven members of the Committee be present.

3. The Rev. Messrs. Taylor, Rigg, B. Slater, Robert Wood, and F. A. West, with James Wood, James Heald, John Fernley, and Thomas Crook, Esquires, are appointed a Sub-Committee to prepare a plan, to be presented for the consideration of the next Conference, for the purpose of more effectually preventing the imprudent erection of Chapels in our Connexion.

4. The thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to the Rev. Joseph Taylor, and the Rev. John Rigg, the Chairman and Secretary, and to the other Members of the Committee, for their diligent attention to the business brought before them during the past year. The Rev. Joseph Taylor is re-appointed the Chairman, and the Rev. John Rigg, the Secretary, of this Committee. All letters on the subject of Chapels should be addressed to the Rev. John Rigg, Methodist Chapel, Oldham-Street, Manchester. It is particularly requested that such letters may be post-paid.

5. The Preachers, and others whom it may concern, are reminded that, according to Rule, "no case shall be sanctioned by the Committee, unless it shall come before them as having received the previous approbation of the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit, and shall be recommended either by the Financial District-Meeting in September, or by the Annual District-Meeting in May."

6. In future, all applications for the permission of Conference for the sale of Chapels shall be first examined by the Chapel-Building Committee, and shall through that Committee be presented to the Conference. Schedules are to be prepared for the purpose by the Secretary of the Chapel-Building Committee, which may be had from Mr. Mason, the Book-Steward.

7. The Chapel-Building Committee are instructed, when their permission is given for the erection of any chapel, to accompany it with an earnest request that the Trustees will subscribe annually, according to their means, from their Trust-Funds, in aid of the Chapel-Fund. (See also Q. xiv., A. 13, p. 99, of these Minutes.)

8. A copy of the conditions on which the Chapel-Building Committee shall agree to sanction the erection, purchase, or enlargement of any chapel, shall be sent to the Trustees of the said chapel for insertion in their Trust-Book, and another to the Superintendent of the Circuit, to be entered in the Circuit-Book.

- 9. In order that the Chapel-Building Committee may have a fuller assurance than at present they can obtain, that a Chapel of the proposed dimensions and materials can be built at the place for the sum specified, the Conference directs, that no Superintendent shall sanction by his signature any application of Trustees to the Committee, until they have furnished plans, specifications, and estimates.
- 10. If in any Circuit it be deemed probable that the erection of a new chapel will be requisite after the Conference, and before the month of April, the plans, specifications, and estimates of which cannot be submitted to the Financial District-Meeting in September, the Chairman of that Meeting shall by letter state to the Building-Committee the opinion of the Meeting as to the expediency of such erection; and in such cases the permission of the Chapel-Building Committee shall be a sufficient warrant for their procedure, that Committee paying special attention to the examination of such cases when the details shall come before them.

11. Instead of the regulation which requires that a "copy of the conditions on which the Chapel-Building Committee may agree to sanction the erection, purchase, or enlargement of any chapel"—shall be sent to the Chairman of the District, the Conference directs that a Schedule be sent every year by the Secretary to the Chairmen of Districts, containing the particulars of the cases in each District, in which permission has been granted during the year to build or enlarge chapels; the Schedule to be returned to the Secretary immediately after the District-Meeting, that he may be prepared to report to the General Chapel-Fund Committee, and to the Conference, how far the prescribed conditions have been observed.

12. The Superintendents are especially requested in every case to give all the particulars required by the new printed Forms, both for applications to build and to enlarge chapels, as written letters are found to be generally so defective as to occasion unnecessary trouble and delay.

 Proper printed forms of application to the Chapel-Building Committee, for permission to erect new Chapels, &c., may be had from Mr. Mason, the Book-Steward.

CHILDREN'S FUND.

Q. XVI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference respecting the CHILDREN'S FUND?

A. 1. The thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to the District Treasurers of the Children's Fund throughout the kingdom, for their kind services during the year; and also to the Rev. John S. Stamp, and W. G. Scarth, Esq., the General Treasurers, and to the REV. S. D. WADDY, the General Secretary of this Fund.

2. The Rev. John S. Stamp, and W. G. Scarth, Esq., are re-appointed the General Treasurers, and the Rev. S. D. Waddy is re-appointed the General Secretary, for the ensuing year.

3. All letters on business relating to this Fund should be addressed (post-paid) to the Rev. John S.

STAMP, Methodist Chapel, Sheffield.

4. From the reports of the District-Meetings as to the probable number of Children's allowances to be provided by this Fund in the ensuing year, taking into consideration the increased demand upon its resources by the provision which is now made for the Children of worn-out and deceased Preachers, it appears that the rates of contribution, in proportion to numbers in Society, may be as follows: - One hundred and thirtysix members are to provide the Allowance of one child, and so onwards in regular proportion. On this principle, and in conformity with the regulations passed at the Conference in 1820 in reference to fractional numbers, the following statement has been drawn up. It determines the number of Children's Allowances for which each District is responsible in the year 1840-1841, and which must be divided by the September District-Meeting, according to rule, among the several Circuits included in it.

2. The thanks of the Conference are presented to Michael Ashton, Esq., and the Rev. J. Cusworth, the Treasurers, and to the Rev. W. France, and the Rev. S. Hope, the Secretaries of the Contingent Fund, for their faithful services during the past year.

WORN-OUT PREACHERS' AND PREACHERS' WIDOWS' AUXILIARY FUND.

Q. XVIII. Who are the Committee of the Wornout Preachers' and Preachers' Widows' Auxiliary Fund, appointed to consider and decide upon such cases of Supernumerary and Superannuated Preachers, and of the Widows of Deceased Preachers, as may be recommended by the District-Meetings, in the ensuing year, for relief from that Fund?

A. The President and Secretary of the Conference, the Rev. Dr. Bunting, Messrs, Cusworth, Grindrod, Haswell, T. Jackson, Marsden, Reece, J. Taylor, Treffry, Waddy, and R. Wood; with Messrs. G. R. Chappell and A. Braik, of Manchester; J. Heald, of Stockport; T. Crook and Sands, of Liverpool; Farmer, of London; John Burton and Scarth, of Leeds; Allen, of Macclesfield; Riggall, of Louth; and Suter, of Halifax.

N.B. Should any of the persons belonging to this Committee be unable to attend its Meeting on the Saturday previous to the assembling of the next Conference, early notice must be sent to the President, who has authority to appoint substitutes.

Q. XIX. Who are appointed the TREASURERS and SECRETARY of the Auxiliary Fund for the ensuing year?

A. 1. James Wood, Esq., of Manchester, and the Rev. John Scott, of London, are appointed the Treasurers; and the Rev. Thomas Eastwood, of Wednesbury, is the Secretary.

2. The cordial thanks of the Conference are presented to James Wood, Esq., and the Rev. John Scott, for their services as Treasurers, and to the Rev. Thomas Eastwood, for his services as Secretary, during the past vear.

- N.B. 1. The Chairmen of Districts are required to send to the Secretary of this Fund (whose address is, Methodist Chapel, Wednesbury) such parts of the Minutes of the District-Meetings as relate to the Auxiliary Fund, immediately after the Meeting of their Districts; in order that he may have sufficient time, before he leaves his Circuit to attend the Conference, to arrange and prepare the cases recommended to the consideration of the Committee.
- 2. The Chairmen of Districts shall inquire at the Annual District-Meetings, what children of Supernumerary Preachers, and of Deceased Preachers, are entitled to the usual allowance for Education; and the names of such children shall be immediately transmitted, together with any other claims which may be made upon the Auxiliary Fund, to Mr. Eastwood, that he may prepare an entire list of them, to be laid before the Committee, previously to the ensuing Conference.

3. To promote the general advantage of the Fund, and to enable the Committee at their Meeting previously to the next Conference at once to determine the amount to be divided among the several claimants, the Conference directs that the Subscriptions to the Fund shall be collected every year during the first week in June; and that each Superintendent shall transmit an account of the sum subscribed, with a list of Subscribers, to the Secretary, not later than the 24th of the same month.

4. The cordial thanks of the Conference are specially presented to the following Friends, for their generous contributions to the Auxiliary Fund; viz ..-

 In order to show our benevolent Friends the pressing necessities of the Methodist Preachers' Annuitant Society, and to apprize them of the importance of bestowing a larger portion of their liberality in aid of its resources, it may not be improper to add that, as the Society's Fund is unable to meet the claims which are made upon it by Supernumerary Preachers and Widows of Deceased Preachers, the Members have agreed to reduce the amount of annuities in the first or lowest class, from £19 19s. to £10 each, and on the other classes in just proportion.

Q. XX. What Regulations are to be observed in carrying into effect the Resolutions of the Conference, held in Liverpool, 1839, relative to a more regular and adequate Provision for our Supernumerary Preachers, and for the Widows of our Deceased Preachers?

A. 1. Each Circuit is to be responsible to the Treasurers of the Auxiliary Fund for a sum equal to sixpence per Member; taking the numbers for the Circuit in all cases as returned to the preceding Conference, and published in its Minutes.

2. In order to raise this quota, a distinct and special appeal shall be made annually, in every Class-Meeting without exception, to the justice and good feeling of our people. The times of making such appeal shall be, uniformly and in all cases, (in order to avoid injurious interference with other applications,) that of the first and second Class-Meetings in the month of January of each year. Each Leader shall be furnished with a brief printed statement of the case of the Supernumeraries, Widows, and Orphans, which shall be read to the members of his class, at each of the two Meetings specified. He shall then request their voluntary contributions, according to their respective means and circumstances, in aid of the object contemplated; and shall receive and enter in a separate book, properly ruled for such entries, to be entrusted to his care for that specific purpose, any sum, be it small or large, which they may be disposed to give. It is hoped that scarcely any of the classes will fall below the average minimum of sixpence per Member; and that many of them, especially in the larger societies, will considerably exceed it.

3. In every Circuit, at the September Quarterly Meeting, a Circuit-Treasurer for the Auxiliary Fund shall be appointed, whose office it shall be,

(1.) To meet the Class-Leaders in the last week of January, in order to receive and enter the sums which they shall severally have received from their Members in the earlier part of that month.

(2.) To see, or send to, those Leaders who cannot attend the Meeting for the same purpose.

(3.) To confer with the Preachers and Friends of the Circuit, if it should happen in any case that the amount received in the Classes should fall below the quota chargeable on the Circuit, on the best method of making up that quota by any other means.

(4.) To remit the Circuit quota to the District-Treasurer for the Auxiliary Fund, as is the case in reference to the Children's Fund;—this remittance to be made in the month of February, at latest.

4. At the Financial District-Meeting, held in September, a District-Treasurer for the Auxiliary Fund shall be chosen, to whom all sums raised in the Circuits shall be remitted, and who shall transmit such sums to the General Treasurers in the month of March.

5. At the Annual District-Meeting held in May, when the Circuit-Stewards are in attendance, the District-Treasurer shall report the sums which he has received from the several Circuits in the District, when arrangements shall be made for the continued and efficient prosecution in the District of the measure which the Connexion has so unanimously recommended to the adoption of Conference.

WESLEYAN THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTION.

- Q. XXI. What does the Conference resolve on the Report of the Committee of the Wesleyan Theological Institution?
- A. 1. That Report is received with great satisfaction, accompanied with regret that the pursuits of the Students at Hoxton should have suffered so considerable an interruption through the sickness which has visited the Institution in that place. The Conference also regards it as a matter of regret that the efforts which have been made to procure an eligible site for a new Institution-House in the vicinity of London, have hitherto proved so unsuccessful.

2. It affords the Conference much pleasure to hear that very convenient and advantageous premises have been obtained at Didsbury, near Manchester, for the Northern Branch of the Theological Institution.

3. The thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to the Rev. Dr. Bunting, the President of the Institution, for his very valuable counsels and services during the past year; and to the Rev. Richard Treffry, the House-Governor, for his continued and valued services.

- 4. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. Dr. Hannah, the Theological Tutor, to the Rev. Samuel Jones, A.M., the Classical and Mathematical Tutor, at Hoxton, and to the Rev. John Farrar, the Tutor and Governor of the Abney-House Branch of the Institution, for their very efficient and satisfactory performance of the duties of their respective offices.
- 5. The thanks of the Conference are presented to Thomas Farmer, Esq., the Treasurer of the Institution, and to the Members of the Committee of Man-AGEMENT, for their vigilant and unwearied attention to the concerns of the Institution during the past year.

6. The Conference cannot omit this opportunity of tendering its especial thanks to the REV. JOHN BOWERS, the Secretary of the Institution, and of putting on permanent record the deep and grateful sense which it entertains of the important and efficient services which he has for six years rendered to the Institution; its high estimation of the distinguished ability, fidelity, and unremitting diligence with which he has attended to the interests and business of that Institution from its very commencement; its unfeigned regret that the rules or usages of the Connexion should now require his removal from an office which he has filled so acceptably and beneficially; and its wish that, at this critical period, he could have remained in that office, if it had been consistent with other regulations, until the new Institution-House in the vicinity of London, and the complicated arrangements therewith connected, should have been completed.

7. The Rev. Dr. Bunting is re-appointed to the office of President; the Rev. Richard Treffry is reappointed to the office of House-Governor; Mr. Farmer is also respectfully requested to continue in his office as Treasurer; and the Rev. Edmund Grindrod and Rev. William Barton are appointed Secretaries.

- 8. The Preachers are directed to collect the Donations and Subscriptions which may have been promised in their respective Circuits, and any others which they may be able to procure, in aid of the Funds of the Institution, during the first and second weeks of the month of January in each year; and to remit them to the Treasurer, addressed, Wesleyan Theological Institution, Hoxton, London, not later than the end of January.
- 9. The Committee of Management for the ensuing year shall consist of the following persons; viz., the President and Secretary of the Conference; the President, House-Governor, Tutors, Treasurer, and Secretaries of the Institution; the Rev. John Scott, as one of the Treasurers of the Wesleyan Missionary Society; the Secretaries of that Society; the Book-Steward; the Rev. William Stewart, Rev. Thomas Waugh, and Rev. James B. Gillman, on behalf of the Irish Connexion; with the following Ministers and Gentlemen, viz.,

Rev. William Atherton, London, William F. Johnson, Esq., Man-Richard Bealey, Esq., Bury, Rev. John Bowers, Leeds, Rev. William M. Bunting, Manchester,

T. P. Bunting, Esq., Manchester, Rev. William P. Burgess, London.

10. The following Sub-Committee is appointed to obtain, consider, and decide upon plans and estimates in relation to any additions or alterations which may be deemed necessary in the premises lately purchased at Didsbury for the Northern Branch of the Theological Institution; viz., the President and Secretary of the Conference, the President, Treasurer, and other Officers of the Institution as at present conducted; the Rev. Messrs. Joseph Taylor, Barnard Slater, James Dixon, Peter M'Owan, John Rigg, William M. Bunting, James Methley, William Jackson, sen., William Vevers, John Davis, sen., Robert Wood, Francis A. West, Samuel

Jackson, John Bowers, Thomas Galland, and George Marsden; with Messrs. James Wood, George R. Chappell, John P. Westhead, Peter Wood, M. D., John Lomas, W. F. Johnson, William Allen, Garstang, John Burton, John D. Burton, T. Percival Bunting, James Fildes, John Fernley, and John Mason, of Manchester; James Heald, of Stockport; Thomas Crook and Thomas Sands, of Liverpool; Peter Rothwell, of Bolton; Alexander Suter, of Halifax; J. R. Kay, of Bury; William G. Scarth and John Howard, of Leeds; Samuel S. Smith and Thomas Branson, of Sheffield; T. Allen and Martin Swindells, of Macclesfield; and Richard Bealey, of Bury; who, after they have fixed upon their plans, have power to appoint a smaller Sub-Committee from among themselves to carry those plans into execution, and, generally, to make the necessary preparations for the opening of the Northern Branch of the Theological Institution in the Autumn of 1841. Rev. John Bowers, and the Rev. Peter M'Owan, are appointed Secretaries of this Sub-Committee.

EDUCATION.

Q. XXII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of Education?

A. 1. The Conference has received with approbation the Report of the Education Committee, and adopts unanimously the following Resolutions, recommended by the General Committee of Education assembled at Newcastle, on Saturday, the 25th July, 1840, viz.,

(1.) That this Committee earnestly recommends to the Conference to require that the Returns of Day and Infant, and Sunday Schools, now in part prepared, should be forthwith completed; and that, in order to it, those Superintendents who have not sent in their Schedules should do so on or before the 31st of October ensuing, addressed to the Secretary of Education, at 14, City-Road; and that similar returns be annually prepared, and forwarded at the same period of each successive year.

(2.) That in the present state of Educational efforts among us, this Committee approves of the determination of the Committee in London, to expend the interest of the sum appropriated to them by the Committee of the Centenary Fund, chiefly in preparing Masters, who may be efficient either as Teachers in Schools of a superior order, or as Training-Masters for other Schools in the Connexion: and that, with this view, this Committee expresses its concurrence with the sentiments expressed by the London Committee, that it is highly desirable to obtain from the Centenary Fund, in any future distribution which may take place, a larger grant for Educational purposes.

(3.) That this Committee earnestly recommends that, as soon as possible, the Conference provide such a Plan for General Education, as, being prepared and revised under its direction, may receive its cordial sanction, and be adopted throughout the Connexion.

(4.) It was unanimously resolved to recommend,

(i.) That the thanks of the Conference be presented to the Committee of Education in London, for their valuable services through the past year.

(ii.) That the thanks of the Conference be presented to the Rev. Samuel Jackson, for his long and valuable services in the cause of Wesleyan Education.

(iii.) That the thanks of the Conference be presented to James Hunter, Esq., the Treasurer of the Education Fund, for his services during the past year; and that he be requested to accept that office for the year ensuing.

2. The thanks of the Conference are also presented to the Rev. Robert Newstead, and the Rev. George Osborn; and they are hereby appointed the Secretaries of the Education Committee for the ensuing year.

3. The Committee shall consist of the following persons; viz., the President and Secretary of the Conference, the Ex-President, the Rev. Dr. Alder, Messrs. Atherton, Burgess, Barton, Beecham, Dr. Bunting, Grindrod, Haswell, T. Jackson, I. Keeling, Kelk, Scott, A. Stead, and Treffry; with Messrs. J. R. Brown, Chappelow, Calder, sen., J. S. Elliott, T. Frid, Farmer, Gabriel, sen., Hoby, Ince, W. Judd, Kruse, Storr, and R. Smith; with power to add to their number.

N.B. 1. The Preachers are solemnly enjoined to hold regular weekly Meetings with the children of our people, under the age of fourteen, on the most convenient day of the week, in every town where a Preacher has his stated residence, according to our ancient rule and practice.

2. The attention of our Preachers is earnestly directed to the necessity and importance of making some effectual arrangement in every town where a Preacher resides for obtaining pastoral access, at stated times, to the young persons of Methodist families, between the ages of fourteen and twenty, with a view to promote their spiritual welfare by instruction, exhortation, and prayer.

CENTENARY FUND.

Q. XXIII. What Resolutions does the Conference

adopt in reference to the CENTENARY FUND?

A. 1. The Conference hereby solemnly records its devout gratitude to Almighty God for the success of the Centenary Fund during a year of almost unprecedented commercial distress, tenders its grateful acknowledgments to the Subscribers throughout the Connexion, and rejoices in the hope of the completion of this noble effort of Christian benevolence, as a powerful means of extending the cause of Christ both at home and abroad.

2. The Resolutions and proceedings of the Centenary General and Sub Committees during the year, are unanimously approved by the Conference; which hereby presents its respectful and cordial thanks to the Members of those Committees, and to the Treasurer and Secretaries, for their diligent and faithful services on behalf of the Centenary Fund.

3. The Conference unanimously adopts the recommendation of the General Centenary Committee, that in order to facilitate the payment, during the ensuing year, of the third and last instalment of Subscriptions to the Centenary Fund, in addition to personal applications to Subscribers, Circuit-Meetings shall be held in the month of June next, in order to make arrangements for receiving the balance of Subscriptions, previous to closing the accounts for the General Report, and to afford opportunity to all those persons to become Subscribers who may not previously have contributed.

4. The President has authority to call a Meeting of the General Committee on Wednesday, the 28th of July, or earlier, if it should appear to be necessary.

5. The cordial thanks of the Conference are presented to H. P. Parker, Esq., of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, for the highly valuable donation he has made to the Centenary Fund, in presenting for the use of the Conference in the Centenary Hall his celebrated historical Painting of the Rescue of the late Rev. John Wesley, our venerated Founder, from the flames which consumed the parsonagehouse at Epworth in 1709; and the generous gift of Mr. Parker is hereby gratefully accepted by the Conference.

ADMINISTRATION OF THE SACRAMENTS.

Q. XXIV. What does the Conference determine with respect to the administration of Baptism and the Lord's supper?

A. The Conference directs that these Sacraments shall always be administered according to the Liturgy of the Church of England, or according to the Abridgment of that Liturgy by Mr. Wesley; and the Superintendents are required, without delay, to see that every chapel in their respective Circuits be supplied with at least Mr. Wesley's Abridgment, for this purpose. The Conference also directs that the Sacrament of Baptism shall be administered, not at the close of the public service, but before the sermon. It is understood that "the person who administers shall have full liberty to give out hymns, and to use exhortation and extemporary prayer."

The Conference also repeats the following rules on the subject of Baptism: (Minutes, 1812, Vol. III.,

p. 294:)—

"1. Let that ordinance, if possible, be always administered in the public congregation.

"2. Let us administer it, in general, only to the children of our own members, and those of our regular hearers."

JURISDICTION OF DISTRICTS.

- Q. XXV. When charges are preferred against a Preacher who has removed from the District in which the facts are alleged to have taken place, in what DISTRICT shall the case be tried?
- A. When the accused Preacher's Circuit is so distant from the locality in which the charges arise, that, in the judgment of the Chairman of his District, sanctioned by the concurrent opinion of the President, a serious hinderance would be caused to the attendance of witnesses, it is resolved that the case may be tried in a Minor or Regular District-Meeting of that District from which the charges are preferred; but the proceedings shall be fully reported to the Chairman of the District in which the Preacher is stationed, to the May District-Meeting of that District, and to the President of the Conference.

THE PRESIDENT'S VISIT TO AMERICA.

- Q. XXVI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the LATE VISIT OF OUR PRESIDENT, THE REV. ROBERT NEWTON, TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA?
- A. 1. The Conference records its affectionate and grateful obligations to the President, the Rev. Robert Newton, for the promptitude with which, at the sacrifice of much personal and domestic comfort, he consented to undertake a mission, as our Representative, to the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States of America.
- 2. The Conference most cordially and unanimously expresses its high sense of the Christian spirit which its honoured Representative maintained in every part of his arduous service,—of the unwearied zeal and diligence with which he "laboured," among our American brethren, "in the word and doctrine,"—and of the fidelity which he uniformly observed, especially in his unflinching reiteration and avowal of our unaltered and unalterable views and sentiments on the subject of Slavery.

3. The Conference offers its united thanksgivings to Almighty God for His gracious preservation of our beloved Representative both by sea and land,—for the eminent assistance which He granted to him in his various ministrations abroad,—and for the unabated health and vigour in which He has restored him to his family and to us; and to these thanksgivings the Conference adds its fervent prayers, that God may still guard and bless His servant through many future years of usefulness and peace.

PROCEEDINGS AND DECISION OF THE CONFERENCE ON MATTERS RELATING TO THE UNION BETWEEN THE BRITISH CONFERENCE AND THE UPPER CANADA CONFERENCE, AND TO OUR MISSIONS IN UPPER CANADA.

The Conference last year appointed a Special Committee to decide finally in all matters relating to the union existing between the British Conference and the Upper Canada Conference, and to our Indian Missions in Upper Canada. A large Committee was also this year appointed by the Conference, to investigate the proceedings of the aforesaid Committee of last year,—to consider the Resolutions which were adopted by the Upper Canada Conference of 1840,—and to receive the communications of the Rev. Egerton Ryerson and Rev. William Ryerson, the Representatives deputed by the Upper Canada Conference to attend the British Conference. The Committee last named sat several days, and at length presented a copious Report to the Conference, which Report received a few verbal alterations and additions, and on the whole of which, as thus amended, the decision of the Conference was then given.

I. THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE.

During the long and careful examination of the important subjects referred to the Committee, various Documents were read or largely quoted, and oral testimonies received, comprising the following Articles:—

1. Dr. Alder's Statement of the Proceedings of the Committee appointed by the British Conference for the Affairs of Upper Canada in 1839.

2. Articles of Union between the British Conference and the Conference of Upper Canada, drawn up in 1833.

3. The Rev. John Beecham's Statements and Explanations in illustration of the aforesaid Articles of Union.

4. The Rev. George Marsden's Explanatory Statement respecting the Note appended by the Upper Canada Conference of 1833 to the 5th clause of the 6th Article of Union, and the first Payment of the Government Grant for our Missions in Upper Canada.

5. Statements of the Rev. Edmund Grindrod, Rev. William Lord, and Rev. Joseph Stinson, who have been Presidents of the Upper Canada Conference; and also of the Rev. Matthew Richey.

6. Letter from the Rev. Egerton Ryerson to Dr. Alder in 1834.

7. Extracts from the Minutes of the Upper Canada Conference, held in Toronto in 1837, on Government Grants for religious purposes,—involving principles which might have been pleaded by the Government as a reason for withholding from the Wesleyan Missionary Society the Grant pledged to that Society from the Casual and Territorial Revenue for the support and extension of our Missions amongst the Indians and destitute Settlers in Upper Canada; and which, in point of fact, did induce the Local Government to decline for a time to renew, in conformity with the instructions of the Secretary of State for the Colonies, the payment of the suspended Grant.

8. Extracts from Letters of the Rev. Joseph Stinson, under the dates of October and November, 1838, and January, 1839,—showing that the peace of our Societies in Canada was disturbed through an habitual and zealous interference with secular and party politics by the "Christian Guardian;" which paper, being the avowed and official organ of the Upper Canada Conference, virtually involved the British Conference, during the subsisting Union, in a common responsibility as to principles and consistency.

9. Dr. Alder's Letter to the Rev. Joseph Stinson, dated London, January 14th, 1839, on the subjects referred to in the abovenamed Letters of Mr. Stinson.

10. Letter of the Secretaries of the Wesleyan Missionary Society to the Lieutenant-Governor, Sir George Arthur, dated London, February 8th, 1839, announcing the mission of Dr. Alder to our Societies in British North America, and to the Upper Canada Conference,-disclaiming, on the part of the Wesleyan Missionary Society, all participation in the responsibility attached to certain publications on questions then agitated in Canada,—and expressing their anxiety to maintain the honour and consistency of our religious character, and to preserve "all the Societies, with whom they are in any degree identified, in habits of loyalty and peace, and of exclusive devotedness, in their collective and ecclesiastical relations, to the great work of promoting the spiritual and eternal interests of mankind."

11. Letter of the President of the British Conference, the Rev. Thomas Jackson, to the Rev. Egerton Ryerson, complaining of his official advocacy of principles in the Christian Guardian inconsistent with, and opposed to, the principles held and often declared by the British Conference.

12. Extract from the Minutes of the Upper Canada Conference, held at Hamilton, in June, 1839, containing the settlement of matters in dispute up to that period, and an amicable arrangement for the future.

13. Extracts from the Christian Guardian on the same subject. 14. Dr. Alder's Letter to the Rev. Joseph Stinson, dated New-York, October 9th, 1839.

15. Extracts from the Letters of the Rev. Joseph Stinson and

Rev. Matthew Richey to Dr. Alder in 1839 and 1840.

16. Memorial addressed to the Governor-General by the Rev. Joseph Stinson, President of the Upper Canada Conference, and Superintendent of our Missions in Upper Canada, and by the Rev. Matthew Richey, Superintendent of Toronto.

17. Letter to Dr. Alder from Mr. Vernon Smith, M.P., Under-Secretary of State for the Colonies, dated Downing-Street, 1840, enclosing, by order of Lord John Russell, an important communication of the Rev. Egerton Ryerson's to the Governor-General, and which Mr. Vernon Smith's Letter describes as respecting the Grant to the Wesleyan Missionary Society.

18. Dr. Alder's Letter to the Right-Honourable Lord John Russell, Her Majesty's principal Secretary of State for the Colonies, in reply to Mr. Vernon Smith's communication.

19. Resolutions of the Committee appointed by the British Conference of 1839 to decide finally on all matters relating to the Union existing between the British Conference and the Upper Canada Conference, and to our Indian Missions in Upper Canada, held at 77, Hatton-Garden, London, on Wednesday, April 29th, 1840; which Resolutions specify the three distinct allegations, or matters of complaint, to which reference is made in the Resolutions of this Committee hereinafter inserted. (See Resolution I.)

20. Correspondence of the Rev. Egerton Ryerson with the Governor-General of British North America.

21. Resolution on Government Grants for Religious Purposes, submitted by Dr. Alder to the Upper Canada Conference at Hamilton, in 1839.

22. Address of the Upper Canada Conference, held at Belleville, in June, 1840, to the British Conference.

23. Resolutions, in accordance with the views of the British Conference, which were proposed to the Upper Canada Conference in 1840, and negatived by a large majority.

24. Resolutions of the Upper Canada Conference in 1840, carried by a large majority, after those last-mentioned were negatived.

25. Report of the Committee on British Canadian Affairs, held at Newcastle-upon-Tyne, on Friday evening, July 31st, 1840.

In connexion with the recital or quotation of the preceding documents, the Rev. Egerton Ryerson and Rev. William Ryerson, as Representatives of the Upper Canada Conference, were also heard at very great length; and every other method was used, at several successive Meetings, to obtain a full exposition of the case. After all which, the Committee agreed to recommend the following Resolutions to the Conference:-

I. That the three allegations, or matters of complaint, contained in the Resolutions of the Committee on Canadian Affairs, at their Meeting on the 29th of April last, and forwarded by that Committee to the Upper Canada Conference, are regarded as fully proved: and that, after seriously considering the explanations and defence of the Rev. Egerton Ryerson and Rev. William Ryerson, the Representatives of the Upper Canada Conference, on these points, and giving them the full weight to which they might be deemed to be entitled, the Committee are decidedly of opinion that the Representatives of the Upper Canada Conference have entirely failed to establish a justification; inasmuch as it appears that, notwithstanding all they have stated and explained, there existed,—

1. A practical superseding of the Rev. Joseph Stinson, as President, by communicating with the Governor-General separately, and without his knowledge, and by acting without him, and without the Committee of the Upper Canada Conference,—of which Committee Mr. Stinson was a member, and Chairman, (ex-officio,)—on matters affecting the permanency of the Government

Grant to the Wesleyan Missionary Society.

2. A violation of the obligations arising from the Union, in not opposing, but rather countenancing, the payment of our Grant in a certain contingency, not to us, but to the Upper Canada Conference, for other and different purposes.

3. The decidedly and prominently political character of the "Christian Guardian," in violation of pledges given to us and to the Upper Canada Conference from 1833 to 1839.

II. That, after a most careful examination of the complicated and difficult subjects which have engaged the attention of the Committee appointed by the British Conference of 1839 to decide finally in all matters relating to the Union existing between the British Conference and the Upper Canada Conference, and to our Indian Missions in Upper Canada, and after having, in the course of a very protracted discussion, had abundant proof of the wisdom, care, and kindness which the aforesaid Committee have manifested in relation to the affairs of Upper Canada, the present Committee are unanimously of opinion that the members of the Committee on Upper Canadian affairs, particularly in the Resolutions adopted at their Meeting in London, on Wednesday, April 29th, 1840, and transmitted to the Upper Canadian Conference, have strictly adhered to those great principles which have always guided the Wesleyan Body; and that they are therefore entitled to the thanks of the Conference for the important services which they have rendered to the common cause of Weslevan Methodism.

III. After a close consideration of the Resolutions of the Upper Canada Conference of 1840, in answer to the Resolutions of our Committee on Upper Canada affairs at their Meeting on April 29th, 1840, it was resolved,—

1. That this Committee is most happy to perceive that one of these Resolutions, which determines that the "Christian Guardian" shall cease to be a political paper, and shall be confined to purely religious and literary subjects and articles of religious intelligence, is to that extent satisfactory: but that the unqualified reservation of the "Clergy-Reserve Question,"— a reservation already so construed and abused as to be pleaded in justification of an almost unlimited discussion of great and general principles on Ecclesiastical Polity, held sacred by this Body;—and the absence of any adequate security for a more faithful observance of this Resolution than has been maintained with respect to similar pledges repeatedly given from 1833 to 1839;—in connexion with the fact that a direct negative was simultaneously given to another series of Resolutions, which would have been much more explicit and satisfactory on the several subjects referred to;—are circumstances which the Committee deeply regret, and cannot but regard with distrust and disapprobation.

2. That on the other important topics embraced in the Resolutions of our Committee on Upper Canada Affairs, dated April 29th, 1840, the Resolutions of the last Upper Canada Conference appear rather to imply an acquiescence in the evils complained of, and an official adoption of them, than a cordial determination to prevent their future recurrence by substantial and efficient measures: and seem to evince that there is a decided difference between the two Conferences on the construction of the Articles of Union, in reference to fundamental principles essential to the good working of the Union, and which the Committee are of opinion that the British Conference cannot abandon without compromising its own consistency and public reputation, inasmuch as it cannot safely be identified in views and responsibility with any Body, however respected, over whose public proceedings it is denied the right and power of exerting any official influence, so as reasonable and necessary co-ordinate but efficient direction, during the continuance of the Union.

IV. That, in the judgment of this Committee, nothing has occurred, in the whole course of these negotiations, to shake the confidence of the Conference in the Rev. Joseph Stinson and Rev. Matthew Richey; and that the members of the Committee cannot but express their hearty esteem and approbation of the ability, fidelity, and diligence, with which these respected brethren have performed the duties officially confided to them.

V. That, notwithstanding the grounds of grievance and complaint on which the Committee have felt it to be their duty to express so strong an opinion, they are aware of the desirableness of maintaining the existing Union between the two Bodies, for reasons which relate to the general interests of our common Christianity, and to the continued connexion of the Province with the Mother Country. Yet, in their judgment, that Union can be advantageously maintained only by the strict and undeviating adherence of our Upper Canadian brethren to the following principles and regulations:-

1. That the continuation of the Government Grant to the Weslevan Missionary Society be cordially assented to and supported by our Upper Canadian brethren, even if its payment should be ultimately transferred, as proposed in the "Clergy-Reserve Bill," lately passed by the Imperial Parliament, from the Casual and Territorial Revenue, on which it is now placed, to the Clergy-Reserve Fund in that Province; and that, as it appears that the payment of the Grant has actually been again suspended, and is at present withheld, to the great inconvenience and embarrassment of our Missions in Upper Canada, the Rev. Egerton Ryerson shall address a letter to Lord John Russell, disclaiming any intention or wish to deprive the Wesleyan Missionary Society of the Grant of £700 per annum, secured to that Society as a fixed charge for Missionary purposes in Upper Canada,—requesting that its regular payment may be continued, -and assuring his Lordship that any other construction which may have been put upon his letter to the Governor-in-chief, was founded in a misapprehension of his meaning.

2. That the "Christian Guardian," or whatever Newspaper or Periodical may in future be recognised as the Official Organ of the Upper Canadian Conference, shall entirely abstain from all party political reasonings and discussions, confining its expressions of opinion to religious and literary topics.

3. That such Official Organ admit and maintain all the acknowledged principles of the Wesleyan Methodist Connexion; and that, in seeking for a right understanding on this point, the Committee have especial reference to that principle of our Body, which asserts it to be the duty of civil Governments to employ their influence, and a portion of their resources, for the support of the Christian religion.

The Committee recommend, in conclusion, that the Conference now remit the whole affair to the management of a Special Committee, whose duty it shall be to draw up a statement, in a more detailed manner, of the points on which full satisfaction will be expected from the Conference of Upper Canada, and to make such a Report of the Resolutions of that Body thereupon as may enable our next Conference, assembling in Manchester, to determine finally the course which, in reference to this Union, it may then appear proper to adopt in the settlement of the whole affair.

II.—THE DECISION OF THE CONFERENCE.

The Report above inserted was presented to the Conference, and read in the hearing of the Rev. Egerton Ryerson and Rev. William Ryerson, Representatives of the Upper Canada Conference. They desired a copy of it, which was accordingly handed to them; and they retired to examine its several parts. When they returned, they were again heard at length, and mutual explanations were made on several points to which they demurred. In the end, they frankly and explicitly declared it as their opinion, that the Upper Canada Conference, of which they are the Representatives, would never be induced to accede to the views which are contained in the aforesaid Report, and concerning which such serious misunderstandings have arisen; and that the maintenance of such views on the part of this Body would be regarded by the Upper Canada Conference as a virtual dissolution of the Union. Upon hearing this, the Conference was reluctantly led to the conviction, that a continuation of the more intimate connexion established by the Articles of 1833 is quite impracticable. The Conference could not overlook the fact, that the pacific Resolutions which had already been proposed to the Upper Canada Conference of 1840 by some of its Members, were negatived by a large majority; and that, from the statement of the Rev. Egerton Ryerson and Rev. William Ryerson just made, the same disposition evidently remains, and clearly precludes a farther perpetuation of the Union. But the Conference wishes to express its fraternal and affectionate feelings towards the Upper Canadian Brethren, whose continued and increasing prosperity in the enjoyment of "all spiritual blessings," and in the extension of all beneficial spiritual influence, it earnestly desires; and while the relation subsisting between the two Conferences may henceforth be simply that which marks two independent sections of the great Methodist Family, it is devoutly hoped, and implored at the hands of our most merciful God, that they, and all other parts of the same Family, may always preserve towards each other such sentiments of sincere Christian friendship as become those portions of the Church of Christ which agree in many points of Doctrine and Discipline, closely bearing, as they firmly believe, on the best interests of mankind. order that every arrangement may be made in the kindest and most affectionate manner, the Conference deems it right to confide the whole affair to a Special Committee, who shall be invested with full authority to act, during this time and the next Conference in Manchester, in all matters connected with this subject, and especially to take measures, in conjunction with our General Missionary Committee, for the future prosecution of our work in the United Province of Canada, and of our Missions among the Aborigines and Destitute Settlers; -with power also to add to their number, and to appoint from among themselves such Sub-Committees as may be thought advisable. It is likewise recommended, that the Rev. Egerton Ryerson and Rev. William Ryerson be invited to attend the said Committee, or any Sub-Committee or Deputation which may be appointed by it, with a design to render every plan and disposition of affairs as amicable as possible. the whole subject, therefore, the Conference resolves, UNANIMOUSLY,-

I. That the first four Resolutions contained in the preceding Report of the Committee, as those Resolutions are revised and amended, be received and adopted by the Conference.

II. That as, for the reasons above suggested, a perpetuation of the Union between the British and Upper Canadian Conferences is judged to be impracticable, the fifth Resolution contained in the aforesaid Report, under all the circumstances in which the subject is now presented for the decision of the Conference, cannot be received and adopted; but that the following Committee be appointed, with all the powers already mentioned, to take the most judicious and Christian measures, in conjunction with the Rev. Egerton Ryerson and Rev. William Ryerson, as Representatives of the Upper Canadian Conference, that the formal dissolution of the Union may not be accompanied with anything that might produce embittered feelings, or injure mutual charity; viz., the President and Secretary of the Conference, the Rev. Messrs. Richard Reece, Richard Treffry, Thomas Jackson, John Scott, John P. Haswell, Edmund Grindrod, Thomas Galland, James Dixon, Joseph Taylor, Peter M'Owan, Matthew Richey, Joseph Stinson, George Marsden, William Lord, Robert Wood, Barnard Slater, John Rigg, William Bennett, William M. Bunting, John Davis, sen., John Bowers, William Atherton, Richard Waddy, Isaac Keeling, Timothy Ingle, John Mason, jun., Samuel Jackson, William Vevers, Joseph Fowler, William Barton, Francis A. West, Samuel D. Waddy, together with the Missionary Secretaries.

III. That the above-named Committee shall hold its first Meeting in Manchester, on Wednesday, August 19th next, and its subsequent Meetings as may be found convenient or necessary.

ANTI-SLAVE-TRADE AND AFRICAN-COLO-NIZATION SOCIETY.

Certain printed documents have been laid before the Conference, and circulated among its members, which explain the nature, objects, and principles of an Institution lately formed, under the Presidency of His Royal Highness Prince Albert, embracing persons of all political parties, and of all Christian denominations, and entitled, "The Society for the Extinction of the Slave-Trade, and for the Civilization of Africa;" on which it was unanimously resolved,-That this Conference hails with the greatest satisfaction the formation of the Society just mentioned; and considers its great object to be one not only dear to humanity, and especially called for by "justice to Africa," in compensation for unnumbered injuries and wrongs, but eminently calculated, by the Divine blessing on its ultimate results, to favour in various ways the operations of Christian Missionaries among the native tribes, and the highest spiritual interests of a large and most interesting section of the human family. On these grounds, this Conference feels it to be a religious duty to recommend the "Society for the Extinction of Slavery and the Civilization of Africa," and any Auxiliary Society which may be formed in connexion with it on the truly Christian principles recognised in its Prospectus, to the liberal support and zealous co-operation of our societies, congregations, and friends in every part of the world.

MISCELLANEOUS ORDERS AND RESOLUTIONS.

- 1. Return of Members in Society. The number of Members in Society, and of persons admitted on trial, as taken at the March Quarterly Visitation in each year, and faithfully reported, by a presentation of the Circuit-Schedules, at the District-Meetings, shall be the number returned on the Minutes of the following Conference.
- 2. District-Meetings. It is resolved that all the regular annual Meetings of the several District-Committees shall be held between the 16th and 23d of May, with the exception of the North-Wales and Second South-Wales Districts, and the Scotch Districts.

- 3. Resolved unanimously, That the thanks of the Conference be affectionately presented to the Rev. Theophilus Lessey, its late President, for his faithful discharge of the duties of his office; that a letter of condolence be sent to him, assuring him that, in his lamented indisposition, he has the most cordial sympathy of his brethren; and that the letter addressed by Mr. Lessey to the Conference be copied into the Journal in connexion with the record of this Resolution.
- 4. Protracted Illness of the President. Resolved unanimously, That, in order to provide against the difficulties and inconveniences which may result from the continued affliction of the President of the Conference, in every such case the Regulation which was made in the year 1816 for the case of a President's dying during the year of his Presidency, shall be applied according to the extent and duration of the exigency; that is to say, on receiving notice from the President of his inability, through indisposition, to discharge the duties of his office, "the last surviving President shall be considered as having all the powers, privileges, and authorities of the Presidency, and as responsible for all its duties."

5. Resolved unanimously, That the cordial thanks of the Conference be presented to the President, the Rev. Robert Newton, for his able and highly acceptable services as its Secretary during the past year.

6. Resolved unanimously, That the thanks of the Conference are due, and are hereby cordially presented, to the Rev. Thomas Jackson, for the important and valuable services which he has been called to render in the past year, in various official departments of our work, as the helper or substitute of the late President during his long and lamented illness, and especially as Acting Chairman of the several Committees which have met in preparation for the present Conference.

7. Resolved unanimously, That the thanks of the Conference be presented to the Rev. James Dixon, for his compliance with its request that, in the absence of the late President, he would preach the Official Sermon before the Conference, in Brunswick-Place Chapel, in the forenoon of Monday, August 3d, 1840; and that he be earnestly requested to prepare for publication the substance of the excellent Discourse delivered by him on that occasion: Also, That the thanks of the Conference be presented to the Secretary, the Rev. Dr. Hannah, and that he be affectionately solicited to comply with the unanimous desire of the Preachers who were this year admitted into full Connexion, by publishing the judicious and impressive Charge which, at the earnest request of the Conference, he delivered in Brunswick-Place Chapel, in the evening of Thursday, August 6th, 1840.

8. Resolved unanimously, (1.) That, having heard a most affectionate and impressive letter, which was addressed to the Conference by the late Rev. James Buckley, for the purpose of its being forwarded after his decease, and by which the excellent writer kindly presents various sums to our Connexional Funds to the amount of £100, the Conference hereby gratefully accepts the kind and liberal benefactions of which it is informed in a manner so solemnly affecting: And, (2.) That the cordial thanks of the Conference be presented to Mr. James Buckley, of Llanelly, for the kindness and promptitude with which he has fulfilled the wishes and directions of his revered father, by paying to the President of the Conference the sum of £100, in discharge of the donations given to various Connexional Funds by the late Rev. James Buckley, as a tribute of his love and affectionate remembrance of his brethren.

9. Schedules and Circulars for Connexional Business. That, as it is obviously desirable that the Committees appointed by the Conference to manage the several departments of the business of the Connexion in the intervals of its session should be furnished with as much statistical information as possible on the subjects of the matters of business severally confided to their care, the Conference authorizes them, through their appointed officers, to send, when they deem it expedient, suitable Circulars and Schedules to the Superintendents or Chairmen of Districts, as the case may require; and directs filled up.

10. Forenoon Service in the Conference-Chapel on the Sunday and Monday next after the commencement of its Sittings. Resolved unanimously, That the Morning Service be read in the Chapel in which the Conference is assembled, at least when the Official Sermons of the President and the Ex-President are delivered.

11. Sheffield Proprietary School. The Conference rescinds so much of the Minute passed in 1836 as restricts the permission to make an arrangement for the office of House-Governor and Chaplain to such a Preacher only as then was, or might thereafter, by consent of the Conference, become a Supernumerary.

12. Preachers on Trial. Neither in District-Committees, nor at the Conference, have Preachers on Trial a right to vote. The election of a Representative is not an exception.

- 13. Reading of the Pastoral Address in Society-The Superintendents are directed to appoint a Special Society-Meeting to be held, at each principal Chapel in their Circuits, either in the afternoon of the Lord's day, or on some convenient evening of the week, for the purpose of having the Pastoral Address read to the Society, and made the subject of suitable remarks and exhortations.
- 14. In order to bring the state and progress of the work of God in every Circuit distinctly and regularly under the examination of the District-Meetings, copies of the printed Circuit-Schedules, duly filled up, shall be annually produced, read, and considered. The Chairmen of Districts are made responsible for the execution of this order; and shall bring such Circuit-Schedules with them to the Conference, that they may be forthcoming, if called for. (See also Minutes for 1831, Q. xxv., Vol. VII., p. 67.)

15. District-Minutes. The Chairmen of Districts are peremptorily required to procure three complete copies of the Minutes of the several annual and other Meetings of the District Committees, duly signed by the Chairman and Secretary. One of these copies shall be inserted in the District-Records; a second shall be reserved for the use of the Chairmen and Secretaries at the Conference; and a third shall be delivered to the Sub-Secretaries, on the Wednesday preceding the Conference, and by them to the President during the first week of each Conference, to be preserved, under his direction, as a document appertaining to the Connexion. The several copies of the last class shall be written on foolscap paper, that they may be annually bound together in one volume.

16. The Superintendents of those Circuits in which the Conference may from year to year assemble, shall, with the approbation of the President, (as already required by rule,) complete and print, not later than the 15th day of June in each year, a plan of the order of preaching in the principal chapels during the session of the Conference; and shall also, on or before the above date, inform every person whom they have appointed to preach in those chapels, of the time and place of such appointment: and, in order that the Plan thus prepared may not be violated, to the disappointment of our friends, and to the great inconvenience of other parties concerned, no Preacher who attends the Conference shall be at liberty to make an engagement to preach in any other Circuit, either on the Sabbath, or on any other day, during the period appointed for the meeting of the Conference, or of its various Preparatory Committees, at the time for which his name shall be inserted on the Conference-Plan.

17. The Chairmen of Districts are enjoined to make particular inquiries at their Annual Meetings in reference to all the points of Discipline specified in the first Article of the Answer to Q. XXVIII., in our Minutes of 1825.

CONFERENCE OF 1841.

- Q. XXVII. When and where shall our NEXT Con-FERENCE be held?

the accounts of their respective departments.

2. The Rev. Isaac Keeling, and the Rev. John Bowers, our Sub-Secretaries, with the Rev. William Barton, the Journal-Secretary, are directed to attend at the same time, for the purpose of compiling from the District-Minutes various lists, &c., which will facilitate the business of the Committees, and of the subsequent Conference.

- 3. The Chairmen of Districts are required to bring, or send, in time for the meeting of the Secretaries of our Funds, on Wednesday, July 21st, perfect copies of the District-Minutes, and an account of the Numbers in Society in the several Circuits of their Districts, as taken at the March Visitation in 1841.
- 4. The amount of the July Collection in each Circuit must be paid by the Superintendent to the Financial Secretary of the District, and by him to the Treasurer of the Contingent Fund, not later than the first day of the Conference.

LIST OF GENERAL COLLECTIONS AND SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR 1840-41.

The following are the usual and regular Collections which are to be made in all our Circuits during the ensuing year; viz.,-

1. The Private Subscriptions and Public Collections for the Kingswood and Woodhouse-Grove Schools, &c., are to be made in the month of September, 1840; and the amount should be immediately remitted to the Rev. Philip C. Turner, (whose address is, Methodist Chapel, Birmingham,) one of the General Treasurers for the School-Fund, according to the directions given under

Q. xII., at p. 93 of these Minutes.

2. The Annual Subscriptions, due January 1st, and occasional Donations for the Wesleyan Theological Institution, are to be solicited in every Circuit in the first or second week of January, 1841; and forthwith remitted to the Treasurer, Thomas Farmer, Esq., at the Wesleyan Institution-House, Hoxton, London.

8. The Private Subscriptions and Public Collections for the General Chapel-Fund are to be made in the month of February, 1841; and the money should be immediately remitted to Thomas Marriott, Esq., and the Rev. William Kelk, the General Treasurers of that Fund, at No. 14, City-Road, London.

4. The Yearly Collection in all the Classes is to be made as usual at the March Visitation, and the money to be paid at the District-Meetings in May.

- 5. The Private Subscriptions for the Mission-Fund are to be received in all our Circuits, either weekly, monthly, quarterly, or annually, as is most convenient to the Subscribers. The annual Public Collections for that Fund are to be made in all our chapels, and other preaching-places, at the time of the Anniversaries of the several Auxiliary or Branch Societies; or, where no Public Meetings of that kind are held, in the month of May. The money so raised is to be remitted, through the hands of the District Treasurers, to Thomas Farmer, Esq., and the Rev. John Scott, the General Treasurers, whose address is, No. 77, Hatton-Garden, London.
- 6. The Private Subscriptions for the Auxiliary Preachers' Fund are to be solicited in the first week of June, 1841, and a list of Subscriptions sent to the Secretary, not later than the 24th of that month. (See Q. XIX., A. 3, p. 107 of these Minutes.) The money is to be paid on or before the first day of the Conference to the Financial Secretary of the District, and by him to James Wood, Esq., and the Rev. John Scott, the Treasurers.
- 7. The Collection in aid of the Contingent Fund, for the support and spread of the Gospel in Great Britain and Ireland, is to be made in all our chapels and preaching-places, not later than the second Sunday in July, 1841, and the money is to be paid, on or before the first day of the Conference, to the Financial Secretary, and by him to the Treasurers of the Contingent Fund, Messrs. Ashton and Cusworth.

THE ANNUAL ADDRESS

DEARLY BELOVED BRETHREN,

Being permitted by a gracious Providence to see the conclusion of the first year of the second century of our connexional existence, we praise God, and congratulate you on the glad occasion. The prominent place which Newcastle holds in our early history naturally disposes our minds to revert to the time when Methodism was as "a grain of mustard-seed, which is the least of all seeds;" and it would have afforded us pleasure to trace the means by which that seed waxed a great tree, so that it now affords shelter and healing to tens of thousands in different parts of the earth. The increase which has taken place in our societies of this town is a fair type of our increase in most other places where the Ministers of our Body have laboured for any length of time. we are prevented from entering on such a review by the pressing claims of subjects connected with our present condition and future prospects. To some of these, therefore, without further preface, we invite your prayerful attention. It will be admitted that the present are eventful times; and the position which we occupy, as a religious community, is commanding, peculiar, and fearfully responsible. From the beginning we have stood pledged to the work of the world's conversion to the faith of Christ; but by a series of recent events we have of late been brought into more direct collision with Popery, Socinianism, infidelity, and idolatry, in various parts of the world. Against these diversified forms of error we have drawn the sword, and we must throw away the scabbard. The prize for which we and our fellow-Christians of other denominations have to contend, is not truth, civil and religious freedom, personal salvation, the evangelization of the world, and the glory of God, separately considered, but all of them together. In addressing ourselves to this great enterprise, we must make God our refuge, and arm ourselves with the same mind that was in Christ. Not only will worldly wisdom, and a time-serving expediency, be insufficient to guide us, and mere natural courage insufficient to sustain us; but the piety, the zeal, and the intelligence of former times will fall short of the exigencies of these latter days. The entire sanctification of body, soul, and spirit, the unreserved consecration of our time, talents, and influence, to the interests of our Redeemer's kingdom, and the complete subordination of politics, science, and commercial pursuits, to the glorious realities of eternity, must become the objects of our steady aim, and the attainments of each member of our militant host.

We give glory to God on your account, brethren, that, through grace, you have already entered on this higher style of holy living, and of disinterested labour. Deeds of spontaneous benevolence, unparalleled in the annals of our religious community, have been performed by you in connexion with our Centenary services: and they are recorded on earth and in heaven as tokens of your gratitude to God for his former favours, and as pledges of your fidelity to his cause in future years. The same spirit of zeal and grateful benevolence which animates our societies at home imbues our Missionary churches abroad; and the accounts which we have received of their Centenary meetings prove that the character, principles, spirit, and operations of Wesleyan

Methodism are the same in all the earth. With deep humility and glowing gratitude we cry, "The best of all is, God is with us." And while we continue to honour him by undivided ascriptions of praise, by the cheerful consecration to him of our substance, and by a free, full, and praverful declaration of his love in Christ Jesus to a lost world, he will not fail to honour us, by strengthening our union, establishing our peace, enlarging our borders, and multiplying our converts. The increase of moral and spiritual power with which he has invested the Connexion, by means of the Centenary movement, has greatly augmented our responsibility: it is designed as a boon to the world; and instead of being self-complacent, we must labour to improve it by enlarged endeavours to promote the salvation of all for whom our Saviour died. With such responsibilities resting upon us, and such a sphere of labour before us, it is ground of thankfulness that we enjoy peace in all our borders; that no doctrinal or disciplinary controversy distracts us; but that a tender and fraternal sympathy prevails through the whole body. May the century on which we have just entered be one of uninterrupted peace, and of unparalleled prosperity! this is the will of God, none can doubt; and each of you, dear brethren, may contribute somewhat towards its realization. Religion is love, pure love to God and man; and he who permits this holy principle to engross his affections, to constrain his will, and to command the entire energies of his nature, for the service of his Redeemer, is sure to be, not only safe and happy, but useful also, in his generation. Love worketh no ill either to its neighbour, or to the church of God. On the contrary, it is destined, through the preaching of the cross, to subdue, unite, and felicitate the whole family of man. That you may be enabled to exemplify it in your speech, your tempers, and in the general tenor of your conduct, at home and abroad, towards friends and foes, see that you abide in the Son, seek to be filled with the Spirit, and use all the ordinances of God.

We greatly rejoice, brethren, that, while Wesleyan Methodism has boldly lifted its voice, and fearlessly exerted its energies, against essential error, and the various forms of ungodliness, it has always, and in the frankest manner, recognised the common brotherhood of " all them that love the Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity." Concerning the Protestant sections of the church of God, whether Episcopalian, Presbyterian, or Independent, our motto has been. "The friends of all, the enemies of none." In executing our commission of mercy to a lost world, we have found such ample occupation for our talents, and have been blessed with such a degree of success, that we have had neither time nor inclination to disturb the peace or alienate the members of other churches. If we have ever wielded the weapons of polemic warfare, it has been in self-defence: and even then, while with one hand we have grasped the sword, with the other we have "builded the wall." We wish we could say that our forbearance had been reciprocated by the different denominations in the land; but we dare not. The Shibboleth of party is still learned; and in certain quarters its pronunciation is rigorously enforced as the only condition on which the right hand of fellowship can be extended. We need not say that we deplore this as a violation of the law of love, and as a practical renunciation of the fundamental principles of the Reformation. By many our catholicity has been reckoned our infirmity, if not our sin; and hence the censures which have been heaped upon us because of our independent position with respect to the established Church on the one hand, and to the different classes of Dissenters on the other. But being fully persuaded that the Most High has chosen our position, and assigned us our work, which is to spread scriptural Christianity through the world, we trust that neither censures nor threatenings, neither honour nor dishonour, will ever induce us to lend ourselves to mere party purposes. While we bewail the recent revival of Popery as a national calamity, we are neither surprised nor greatly alarmed at the popularity to which it has at-In the exercise of its ancient "deceivableness of unrighteousness," it has assumed the garb of liberality, and claims to be the friend of education, and the advocate of equal justice. The profession is novel, and it is therefore liked; the lie is bold, and is therefore believed; the mask is fair, and it passes with many for her true features. But others, unable to forget, and unwilling to deny, the concurrent testimony of history, believe that her delight in proscription, her hatred of the truth, and her enmity to civil and religious freedom remain unchanged. The brand of Antichrist is upon her. For she still makes void the law of God by her traditions. She invests her Priesthood with the prerogatives of Christ, and then interposes that Pricsthood between Him and the people; not as a means of leading them to Him as their Saviour, but to teach them that an immediate application to Him is in a great measure unnecessarv. She first invests the sacraments with the power of conferring grace and salvation, not mediately, or through faith, but necessarily, and as a thing of course; and having done this, she places them between our Saviour and his disciples, not as a means of introducing them more fully into an acquaintance with his love, and power to save, but as substitutes in his stead. particulars, Poperv, and the semi-Poperv which is advocated by several Divines who bear the name of Protestant, are alike; and if either be true, we must not only lay aside the scriptural phraseology which we have hitherto used, in declaring what God hath done for our souls; but we must also blot out a great part of the Psalms, and of the apostolic Epistles, and renounce the obvious meaning of the Scriptures generally. ing to both systems, there is, in reality, no justification by faith, no witness of the Holy Spirit assuring the believer of his adoption, no regeneration for the adult transgressor who may have been baptized in infancy, and no scriptural hope of final salvation for any persons who have not received the sacraments from a man who has been Episcopally ordained. But, brethren, while we regard these systems as essentially opposed to the truth, and as forming an enormous barrier to the evangelization of the world, we rejoice that Protestantism is wrought into the very core of our national constitution, and is deep-seated in the affections of the mass of our population; that the Bible has found its way into the mansions of the rich, and the cottages of the poor; and that scriptural education is spreading through the land. Believing that our evangelical theology, our concentrated agency, and our constitutional loyalty, qualify us for effective service in this war of principles, we entreat you, in your respective neighbourhoods, and to the utmost of your power, to circulate our religious tracts; to befriend the Bible Society; to promote the attendance of the poor on the ministry of the word; and by the prayer of faith, and an unflinching maintenance of the truth, to seek to dethrone Antichrist, and to effect the conversion of the whole world to God.

On the great subject of education, we are happy to announce to you, brethren, that the number of our Week-day and Infant Schools has been considerably increased during the past year; and that the happiest results have followed wherever well-qualified Teachers have been employed. Of these, however, there is a felt deficiency in the body; and our Educational Committee have been instructed to devise measures for securing a From the deep interest which our people generally take in this matter, and the preparations which are made in many Circuits, we are induced to hope that ere long every considerable chapel in the Connexion will be associated with a well-conducted day-school; in which the elements of useful knowledge, at least, shall be taught, in union with "the wisdom which cometh from above," and on such terms as the poorest of our people may reach. But as this period has not vet arrived, permit us to caution you against the popular error, that the education of youth may, without risk, be dissevered from the inculcation of divine truth, the performance of devotional exercises, and the enforcement of religious obligations. The Scriptures enjoin, that we bring up our children in "the nurture and admonition of the Lord." They teach, that religion is the one thing needful; that "the law of the Lord" is the way in which our children should go; and that the Christian salvation only can cure their spiritual diseases, supply their wants, and qualify them for bearing the afflictions and performing the duties of life. The Lord Jesus has said, "He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth." This declaration applies to every order of human agency; but it is especially applicable to the instructers of youth. Their influence over their pupils, whether for good or evil, is all but irresistible. Those parents therefore incur a fearful responsibility who place their children, either as scholars or apprentices, under the tuition of individuals who are sceptical in their views, or lax in their morals. The principles of our creed necessarily influence our practice; and he who hates the truth will not hesitate to advocate error. A professed indifference to all religious opinions is only a mask for secret infidelity; and the master who does not openly avow his faith in the Gospel cannot do otherwise than weaken the principles and shame the profession of the young who are under his "Every tree is known by his own fruit; for of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble-bush gather they grapes. A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil." "The blessing of the Lord is in the house of the righteous." But in those households and seminaries where there is no recognition of Providence, no faith reposed in our Redeemer, and no stated worship offered to God, there can neither be blessing nor righteousness, but "confusion and every evil work." As ye therefore, brethren, desire the salvation of your children, give all diligence to make them acquainted with the truth as it is in Jesus; enjoin upon them a daily perusal of the Scriptures in private; and rest not satisfied till you see them savingly brought to God. Being redeemed by the precious blood of the Son of God, and baptized in his name, they have a right to the blessings of the covenant, and may, with the first dawnings of reason, receive the grace of the Holy Spirit. When circumstances require that they quit the paternal roof, be scrupulously careful to place them under the care of those whose hearts are established in the faith of the Lord Jesus, and who will secure their attendance at the family altar, and on the ordinances of the sanctuary. To do this in the name of the Lord, is to plant them by "the rivers of water;" and having done this, you may confidently hope that they will bring forth fruit in their season; that their "leaf shall not wither;" and that "whatsoever they do shall prosper."

While we are most anxious to see religious day-schools multiplied, we cannot join in the language of depreciation which is often levelled against Sunday-schools. Many speak of these institutions as if they had proved failures; as if they had done little or no good, and were unsuited to the present times. To such sweeping conclusions we are decidedly opposed. On the contrary, it is our opinion that, apart from the ministry of the word, and the other ordinances of the Gospel, no instrumentality now in operation has effected half the good that these schools have done; and as the Ministers of Christ, appointed especially to care for your interests, we feel indebted to those of you who have, in them, devoted so much of your time and attention to the education of the rising race.

In the mean time, we suggest, that the formation of Bible classes, under experienced and intelligent Teachers, ought forthwith to be attempted on a large scale. The number of our scholars capable of appreciating instruction above the common course of Sunday-school tuition, is very great; and the objects desired in reference to them are, to retain them in the schools; to increase their knowledge of the word of God; to guide and gratify their thirst for general information; to attach them to our ministry and worship; and, ultimately, to effect their consecration to God, and union with the church. These ends, it will be admitted, are vastly important; and by the blessing of God they may be accomplished. The great attention which other communities now pay to their Sunday-schools, requires that the pious and influential among us should more fully identify themselves with ours. The altered circumstances of society, too, render this necessary. Formerly infidel principles were found chiefly among the higher and educated classes; but now the humblest mechanic is heard denying the immortality of the soul, the inspiration of the Scriptures, and, in fact, all religious and moral obligation. Many factories are, to a greater or less extent, nurseries of sedition and heresy; and in some of our large towns, nearly every street can furnish oracles of atheism, and malignant impugners of revealed religion. Lectures are supported, and publications are circulated, the direct tendency of which is to blaspheme God, to embrute man, and to subvert the foundations of civil and religious society. By these means the best interests of our youth are endangered, and unless we can make them acquainted with the evidences of Christianity, and other subjects illustrative of the Scriptures, and confirmatory of the Christian faith, need we wonder if they be led away by the error of the wicked? While, then, worldly politicians are pressing the claims of a godless literature on the attention of the nation; and while the patrons of infidelity are labouring to bring in a state of things, in which there shall be no worship paid to God, no Sabbath sanctified, no marriages solemnized, no rights of property respected, and no punishment inflicted on evil-doers; surely it is the imperative duty of all who love God, religion, truth, their country, or their fellow-men, to bestir themselves, to disinter their talents, to throw a defence around the rising generation, and by every means promote their instruction in the truth. Except in a very few instances, Sunday-schools among us are no longer raised into rivalship with the Christian ministry, the public worship of God, or the sanctification of the Sabbath; so that the greatest advocates of good order need not dread embarking in their service. Brethren, there are tens of thousands of children in the manufacturing districts especially, who must be taught on the Sunday, or they will grow up untaught; who must be made acquainted with the principles, evidences, and claims of Christianity in your Sunday-schools, or they will be made acquainted with infidelity elsewhere; and who must obtain profitable and entertaining books out of your school-libraries, or they will read pages which pollute, and books which teach the way to hell.

Another subject to which we earnestly invite your attention, brethren, is the sanctification of the Sabbath. Our proneness to forget this duty is presupposed in the preface to the commandment, "Remember the Sabbath-day, to keep it holy;" and our aptness to evade its restrictions is placed under check by the minuteness of its injunctions. The sovereign authority and the paternal love of God shine most conspicuously in this law; for while he commands the highest to respect his example, and worship him, he gives the meanest servant a chartered right to a weekly rest, on the ground that such a pause in worldly toil is no less necessary to the recruiting of his physical energies, than to the refreshment and renewal of his soul in righteousness. we might be saved from questioning its divine origin, God spake all the words of this law with his own lips, and wrote them with his own "finger;" to teach us its perpetual obligation, he wrote it in "tables of stone;" and to show its connexion and harmony with the economy of grace, it was "sprinkled with blood," laid up in "the ark," covered with "the mercy-seat," and overshadowed with "the glory of the Lord." Lord Jesus not only fulfilled it, but he magnified it, and made it honourable, by adopting it as part of the law of his kingdom; and appointed that his Spirit should write it upon the hearts of his people. called himself, "Lord of the Sabbath;" and by transferring the festival to "the first day of the week," thereby rendering it commemorative of his ceasing from the labours of our redemption, he made it Christian: and at the same time furnished additional motives why we should call it "a delight, the holy of the Lord, honourable;" and should "honour him, not doing our own ways, nor finding our own pleasure, nor speaking our own words."

See then, beloved brethren, that you, your sons, and your daughters, your man-servants, and your maid-servants, and the stranger that is within your gates, "remember" to keep this day holy. Endeavour to close your business-affairs, and to complete your domestic arrangements, in such time that Saturday evening may be a season of hallowed preparation. Rise early, and follow our good old custom of attending the morning prayer-meeting. In your family worship, be solemn, fervent, and full: suffer nothing, public or private, to induce you to hurry over an exercise which necessarily affects the very core of personal and domestic religion. In your attendance at the house of God, be punctual; and religiously guard against late attendance. heartily in singing the high praises of God; pray in the Holy Ghost; hear the word with docility, and in the exercise of an appropriating faith. Improve the intervals of worship by Scripture reading and religious conversation; and, either in the afternoon or the evening, catechise and pray with your children. Suffer neither newspapers, history, nor books of science, to form any part of your Sunday reading. Sacredly abstain from trading-journeys and pleasure-excursions; and neither read nor write letters of business. Discountenance Sunday visiting, and shut out political conversation. If any of you are connected with Rail-road or other Companies, who prostitute the Sabbath to purposes of worldly pleasure or gain, we charge you, before God, to take the first opportunity of protesting against the impiety. The loss of money must not be put in comparison with the favour of God. We are strongly impressed, that the present unparalleled commercial distress is an intimation of the divine displeasure, and is designed to turn us from our national sins, of which Sabbath-breaking is one. The Sabbath is dear to God; it is essentially connected with the honour of his name, and the continuance of his worship; nor will he permit nations or individuals to profane it with impunity. He is now visiting us for these things; and a tender regard for his glory, the good of our country, and the salvation of your families, constrains us to say again, "Remember the Sabbath-day, to keep it holy."

Connected with this subject is the evil of embarking in extravagant business speculations. The folly of this has been made painfully apparent by numerous instances of failure in all parts of the kingdom. But it is important that you, and all who are called by the holy name of Jesus, should be fully aware of its sinfulness. Such speculations obviously imply a making haste to be rich; and they argue a want of contentment with such things as we have. They are the natural manifestations of pride and covetousness; and are directly opposed to the apostolic injunction, "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world; for all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world." When such speculations succeed, they infatuate and estrange us from God and his people. When they miscarry, they bring on aggravated distress, and perhaps sink us into the sorrow of the world, which worketh If they are undertaken with our own money, we cannot be said to glorify God with the substance so employed; and we lay ourselves open to temptations to wrong the poor and the cause of God, by so locking up our property as to make it difficult, if not impossible, to meet their claims. But, generally speaking, they are undertaken to a great extent with the property of others; and when this is the case, it implies a manifest breach of the love we owe to our neighbour, and a deliberate departure from the way of Providence; for God can never direct a man to do that which implies a violation of his own law. The money borrowed for such purposes is almost invariably obtained by false pretensions, and without a fair probability of paying it; and as is the sin, such are its consequences. "They that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. For the love of money is the root of all evil; which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows."

But, beloved, we hope better things of you, and things which accompany salvation, though we thus speak. While others are idolizing the talent of worldly good, see that you faithfully improve it to the glory of God, and the good of your fellow-creatures. Keep in memory that you are only stewards of the manifold mercies of God; and that laying up treasure on earth is as clearly prohibited, as is the squandering of our Lord's goods by riotous living. The Funds of our Connexion are all important; and the efficient support of each is essential to the prosperity of the great work in which we as a people are embarked. But our Missionary Fund at present claims particular attention. Heathen are not only perishing, but perishing with the cry for help on their lips. Ethiopia is stretching out her hands to us, as the almoners of God; not only that we may protect her from those that enslave and oppress her, but also that we may bless her with the Gospel of The fields, in all parts of the world, are white unto the harvest; and there are labourers, lingering on our shores, and longing, in the true spirit of Christian enterprise, to preach the Gospel in the regions beyond. But we want the means of sending them forth. very successes embarrass us. A wide and effectual door is set before us; and, though there are many adversaries, they are restrained. Brethren, our Missionary Committee are in a great strait. The cause is ours as much as theirs. Let us inquire whether we have fully discharged our obligations to God and his cause? whether our rate of giving be in strict accordance with our vows, our income, the injunctions of Scripture, and the necessities of our perishing fellow-men?

At no former period have we had greater encouragement to abound in the work of the Lord than at present. One hundred and three young men have been approved as Candidates for our ministry; and judging from the recommendation given by the District-Meetings, they promise to be blessings to our societies. Fifty-four junior Preachers, having honourably fulfilled the term of their probation, have been admitted into full connexion; and we earnestly commend them to your The number of members in our societies throughout the world is four hundred and twenty-eight thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine; being an increase, during the year, of twenty-two thousand five hundred and fifty-one. Of this increase, sixteen thousand, seven hundred and seventy-four have been added in Great Britain and Ireland, and five thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven on the Mission stations. this great increase we glorify our gracious Lord.

living in a world of change, and allied to a dying race, necessity is laid upon us, that we mingle the note of sorrow with our songs of praise. During the past year, twenty-seven of our esteemed fathers and brethren have departed his life. They died in the Lord, and the voice from heaven pronounces them "blessed;" for "they rest from their labours, and their works follow them."

In a great Connexion like ours, many members necessarily change their place of residence in the course of a year, and the schedules of nearly all the Circuits show a considerable deficit in members received, compared with those that are removed. The benefits of Christian fellowship are invaluable under any circumstances; but they are peculiarly so when we have to dwell among strangers. We are therefore at a loss fully to account for the fact that so many of our people who manifest great esteem for the means of grace when at home and surrounded by friends, should, on going to a distance, neglect to apply for the usual "note of Leaving their respective neighbourhoods without this, they lay themselves open to suspicion: they deprive themselves of an honourable introduction to the Ministers of the place where they settle; and, as hundreds of instances annually prove, they run great hazard of sinking into a state of estrangement from God, and the ordinances of his house. This, brethren, is unprofitable for you, and it is grievous to us. We therefore entreat that in future you will neither suffer business, nor temptation, nor adverse circumstances to keep you from applying, either personally, or by your Leaders, for the certificate of your membership, which it will always afford us pleasure to supply.

Our present Conference has been an eminently happy one. The Lord has been in the midst of us; and his Holy Spirit has come down upon our assemblies. The word has been preached with power; and we have no doubt that our beloved people in Newcastle, and the neighbouring towns, whose liberality and kindness have been above all praise, will long remember their first Conference as a season of special refreshing to them and their families.

Admonished and encouraged by these events, we now address ourselves, in the name of our Lord, to the work of the ensuing year; and we are deeply solicitous that it may be a year distinguished by a superabounding blessing from the Lord. Some churches regard revivals of religion as gracious singularities in their history; we regard them as essential to our ex-If a regular series of divine visitations, issuing in the conversion of sinners, be not vouchsafed to us, we must either change the spiritual constitution of our discipline, or we shall pine away from among the tribes of God's Israel. But we have hope in God, though we thus speak. The world is redeemed: God "will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth;" it is promised that the Holy Spirit shall be "poured upon all flesh;" the Lord Jesus has declared that he will be with his servants even to the end. things are ready;" and He who cannot lie hath said to his disciples, "If two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven." Brethren. let us "give" ourselves "to prayer;" and let us live in the confident expectation that God will do as he hath said. If he sends down "the former and the latter rain" on a village, a town, or a Circuit, let us rejoice; but let us not be satisfied till it takes the sweep of the country, of the kingdom, of the world. For all former effusions of thy Holy Spirit, we praise thee, O Lord! But now, by thy mighty hand and out-stretched arm. and for thy own name's sake, cast down thine ancient foe. Thou hast given thy Son the Heathen for an inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for a possession. Thy people have brought the tithes into the storehouse, and there is meat in thy house; and now we humbly prove thee herewith, and wait to see if thou wilt not open the windows of heaven, and pour us out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it. Amen.

OF THE

IRISH CONFERENCE

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE.

VERY DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN,

HAVING by the good Providence of God closed the first year of the second century of Methodism in peace, we adopt as our motto the language of Samuel, who, when he set up a stone between Mizpeh and Shen, and called the name of it Ebenezer, said, "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us."

. When we reflect on the evils that have threatened us. the number and diversity of enemies that have assailed us, the varied attacks of which we have been the subject, and the scantiness of our earthly resources, our eyes are opened to see as our defence the mountain full of horses and chariots of fire round about us; and our glory and trust are only in the Lord. Yet, united to you by ties which time has served but to strengthen, we gladly acknowledge the obligations under which we are to your suitable and continued sympathy and aid, for our present position among the churches, and before "the inhabitants of the land." Nor do we exclusively allude to the pecuniary supplies you have granted, and without which, according to human calculations, we must have been overwhelmed by our difficulties. The knowledge of our oneness with you,-the oft-repeated expression of your cordial affection, (which we heartily reciprocate,)-

the visits of those who are annually deputed from your Body to come over and help us,—have buoyed up our spirits, strengthened our resolution, cheered our hopes, and animated our efforts, when otherwise we should have sunk as lead in the waters.

Your excellent Address was read by us with great interest, and received with warm cordiality. It contains a correct analysis of our country's evils, and prescribes their only effectual remedy. Ireland, abounding in the elements of a nation's greatness, is yet impoverished and debased beneath the iron rule of a dire superstition, to the subversion of which, legal enactments, physical force, and political expedients, are applied in vain. ages, it has made void the commandment of God by the traditions of men,-sealed up the word of eternal truth from public view, -enthralled the intellect, hardened the heart, paralyzed the energies, and blasted the hopes of our country, which it has wrapped up in a shroud of darkness and of death. Still we do not despair of her final regeneration. Though the kingdom of God cometh not with public observation, they who discern the signs of the times can see, in the pencilling of light with which the horizon begins to brighten, a dim but sure indication of a coming day, when "violence shall no more be heard in the land, wasting nor destruction within its borders;" when, "instead of the thorn shall come up the fir-tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle-tree; and it shall be to the Lord for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off." greatest subject of our regret is the disunion of Protestants; and the greatest object of our fear and deprecation is, the betrayal of the high trusts committed to Protestant churches by the providence of God. Human policy may be wisely and profitably employed in balancing the differences of human opinions and earthly interests; but when the Almighty speaketh, and the interests of his kingdom are involved, compromise is perfidy, by which injuries are inflicted, incalculable in degree, and eternal in duration. "Brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you."

The success with which the Almighty has crowned our labours in the past year encourages our faith and hope. "Our Gospel has not come in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance." Few years have been more remarkable than the last for numerous conversions. Many members of our society have been quickened, led to the cross, and introduced into the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free. value as the great design of our ministry, without which we labour comparatively in vain. We have lost more than six hundred members by emigration, yet we have a net increase of six hundred and sixty-four. "Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto the name give glory, for thy mercy and for thy truth's sake." We deeply feel the responsibility of our office; determine to devote ourselves to the work of the Lord whereunto he hath separated us; and earnestly desire to make full proof of our ministry, "by pureness, by knowledge, by long-suffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned, by the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, by honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true; as sorrowful, yet alway rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things."

In the different sittings of our Conference we have had much pleasure and profit, to which the presence of our highly esteemed and beloved PRESIDENT largely contributed. Having frequently heard through the course of the year of his severe illness, we scarcely hoped for the favour of his presidency. We received him with gratitude at the hand of the Lord, who "killeth, and maketh alive; who bringeth down to the grave, and bringeth up." The delight with which we enjoyed his judicious counsels and rich ministrations suffered no diminution, but from a fear lest his recovery to health may be retarded by the arduous duties of his high office. It is our earnest prayer that his valuable life and labours may be long continued to the church, under the guardianship of Him "who holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks."

You will not think it strange that we felt the absence of our long-known and highly-valued friend, the Rev. Robert Newton, to whom we, and the interests of Methodism in Ireland, are so much indebted, to be a great deprivation. It is, however, gratifying to hear of the kindness and cordiality with which he has been received in America, and the probability of his being made specially useful to an important and interesting branch of the Wesleyan family. We trust that the Great Head of the church will bring him back safely, in the fulness of the blessing of the Gospel of Christ.

We cherished the expectation of seeing the Rev. Dr. Bunting among us, as one of the General Missionary Secretaries; and though in this instance disappointed, we do hope to be favoured with his presence and invaluable counsel at the earliest convenience.

We were much gladdened and profited by the visit of our dearly beloved Ex-President the Rev. Thomas Jackson, the savour of whose hallowed services at the Belfast Conference still remains on our hearts, and to the instrumentality of which is attributable much of our recent prosperity.

Six brethren, having fulfilled their course of trial, have been admitted into full connexion, and separated to the office of the ministry by the laying on of the hands of the Presbytery. This service, always profitable, was made a peculiar blessing. The Most High manifested his presence in our assembly, and set his seal on the ordination of his servants. The President's excellent address, delivered on the subsequent evening, impressed us deeply with the importance of our office, and the necessity of taking heed unto ourselves and to the doctrine, that we may save our own souls, and them that hear us.

Four of our Body, who had been previously obliged through age and infirmities to retire from active service, have been called to their reward. They witnessed a good confession, were sustained in the hour of nature's weakness, and died testifying that Christ is able to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

Four have retired on the Supernumerary list, and eight have been admitted on trial, who we hope will faithfully and effectively supply the place of those whom the Almighty, in the exercise of his infinite wisdom, has seen fit to remove from the militant to the triumphant church. The waste of life and energies in others is highly admonitory to us, possessing as we do one common nature, and existing under one common administration with them; and it teacheth us that we "must work the works of Him that sent us while it is day; the night cometh when no man can work:" while the constant supply of the ministry illustrates the care of the King of Zion for his church, and his design that the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

We are happy to say that the zeal of our people for the extension of Christian Missions still increases, and their liberality to this great cause abounds. Through the organization of Missionary Societies among other denominations, the support of many which was formerly enjoyed by us has been withdrawn; yet our income is above £4800, being more than £100 above last year's receipts. Your Missionary Deputation, the Rev. Messrs. Scott, NELSON, LOMAS, and CLOUGH, and MR. WM. DAWSON, were received by our societies cordially and gratefully; and their visits were highly beneficial to the great cause for which they were engaged. Our Irish Missions have been favoured with the divine blessing. In the last year upwards of one hundred and fifty have been united to our society, and many have been brought to a knowledge of the truth. Six additional Schools are established; and we trust that they will be yet more highly instrumental of cultivating the waste places of our country, till the Saviour "make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the Lord." The Conference, with a deep sense of the fidelity, zeal, judicious and ceaseless efforts, and usefulness of the Rev. W. O. Croggon, have passed a unanimous vote of thanks to him for his services; and they trust by the blessing of God on his continued superintendence of our Missions and Schools, that they shall more abundantly prosper.

We send to you as our Representatives the Rev. Messrs. Stewart, Waugh, and Gillman, in whom we have the fullest confidence.

In conclusion, we pray that a double portion of the spirit of our fathers may be upon us; and may the Lord God of your fathers make you a thousand times so many more as ye are, and bless you as he hath promised you!

Signed in behalf and by order of the Conference, WILLIAM STEWART, Secretary.

THE ANSWER

ADDRESS OF THE IRISH CONFERENCE.

DEARLY BELOVED BRETHREN,

We have received with great pleasure the pious and affectionate Address, presented to us by your respected Representatives, the Rev. Messrs. Stewart, Waugh, and Gillman. We were much affected by an intimation from Mr. Stewart, that this may probably be the last opportunity afforded him of appearing before us in his present character. We entertain a hope that this will not be the case; but that we shall yet have the pleasure of welcoming him in future years as a true representative of the warm and generous friendliness of your country, and of the ability, fidelity, and diligence of your Conference. Mr. Gillman has secured our affection by his amiable deportment, and our respect by his zeal and talent. Of Mr. Waugh we have spoken so often and so highly, that it is difficult to vary our terms of eulogy; and we need only say, that he continues to grow in our affection and esteem.

The faithful performance of ministerial duty in any country, and under any circumstances, will always be attended with difficulties. It is a warfare which is constantly bringing us into collision with the appetites and passions of the carnal mind, and the schemes and systems of worldly men. While, however, we have not been free from this strife, we are fully aware that you have been called to endure its still greater violence. In some places among us Popery has assumed unwonted vigour and assiduity. Some portions of our labouring population have been intoxicated and deluded by the ravings of lawless democrats. But with you these evils are not partial and local, as they are with us, but universal and pervading. And while you fully believe that the holy religion of which you are the Ministers, is the great antidote to the moral and political maladies of your country; there are others of the same opinion. who, as they are interested in maintaining the present state of things, regard you with feelings of peculiar animosity, and watch all your movements with jealousy and suspicion.

The opposition you have to encounter from some professed Protestants, is the more to be deplored as it tends to paralyze your own exertions, to limit your influence, and in some measure to identify such Protestants with the avowed defenders of the errors which you wish to oppose; and as nothing can be more injurious to the great cause of Protestantism, so nothing is more painful and irritating to the minds of its devoted adherents. But we thank God on your behalf, that, in the midst of these party excitements and animosities, you have been able to act upon the principles which have ever been recognised in our Connexion, affording efficient and unvarying support to the Protestant institutions of the country, the benefits of which were never more apparent than in the present times, when the corrupt and persecuting Church of Rome is making such strenuous attempts to regain her lost ascendancy. We have the fullest confidence that you will continue to pursue, with undeviating fidelity, the great objects of your calling, making full proof of your ministry in the salvation of the souls of men, through evil report and good report; when reviled, reviling not again; praying for them that despitefully use you and persecute you.

And we would further add, that, while the factious, and variable, and interested means, continually suggested for the moral and political renovation of Ireland, are all characterized by the spirit of agitation, it is a wholesome contrast to see the only means by which such renovation can really be effected, marked by the quiet, patient, and peaceable demeanour of its advocates.

We sympathize with your regret on account of the extensive emigrations of your people. It is painfully discouraging to witness from year to year the departure of your best people from your shores, to seek in other lands that subsistence and protection which, under a better system of management, their own would so richly produce.

This is a loss to your country. The salt is removed before it has fully imparted its savour; the leaven is separated from the lump before it has had time to leaven it; the light is taken away, while your land is still in darkness.

This is a loss to the emigrants themselves. They leave the scenes and associations of their conversion to God, the churches in which they have been awakened and born again, and the companions and exercises of their first love. Many of them, it is to be feared, lose all sense of religion in the trials and anxieties of a settler, in the absence of the means of grace, and of the fostering care of their Christian Pastors. But while many thus wander and stray, we are encouraged to know that all are not lost: many remain in the fold of Christ. Although lost to you, some go to swell the numbers, and increase the efficiency, of other branches of the great Methodist family; and some, carrying their religion into the heart of the wilderness, lay the foundations of future churches.

Under all the circumstances of opposition and emigration, we consider your reported increase of six hundred and sixty-four as matter of great thankfulness and encouragement. You do not labour in vain, nor spend your strength for nought. You have seen the morning spread upon the mountains; and there shall yet be a glorious day to Christian, Protestant Ireland.

Almighty God has been pleased to crown our labours during the past year with signal success. Our increase of numbers at home is sixteen thousand one hundred and ten; on the Foreign Missions, five thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven; which, with your own number of six hundred and sixty-four, makes a total increase of twenty-two thousand five hundred and fifty-one. success has more solemnly impressed us with a sense of our deep responsibility. The results prove that God has placed in our hands a mighty instrumentality: its effectiveness depends upon our own personal devotedness, and upon the zeal and faithfulness with which this instrumentality is used. Who is sufficient for these things? Brethren, pray for us. A world lying in the arms of the wicked one is before us. God has put into our hands the mighty means to arouse and save it. What manner of men ought we to be in all holy conversation and Dear brethren, we invite you to join with godliness? us in the determination we have already formed, of diligently cultivating our own personal piety and ministerial gifts, that we may be examples of the believers in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

The religious services of this Conference have been attended by the special influence of the Holy Ghost: a spirit of fervent prayer has been poured out upon us; and our various sittings have been characterized by great union and harmony. We shall go from this Conference with hallowed feelings of devotion to God, and affection and esteem for each other.

We are sorry to say that the health of our esteemed Ex-President has not been sufficiently restored to allow of his being present with us. Prayer has been made to God for him continually; and we hope his valuable life will yet be spared to the church and the world.

Death has deprived us of eighteen of our dear fathers and brethren, exclusive of those who have died on our foreign Missions; but the Great Head of the church continues to raise up other labourers, and send them forth into his vineyard. The number of young men ordained this year is fifty-four; and the number received as probationers is also unusually large.

We have appointed our President, the Rev. Robert Newton, to preside at your next Annual Conference; and we have appointed the Rev. John Bowers to accompany him. We have also, according to your wishes, and with perfect confidence in his fitness for the office, re-appointed the Rev. W. O. Croggon as General Superintendent of Irish Missions and Schools.

The Rev. Messrs. Samuel Jackson and Barnabas Shaw for the North of Ireland, Thomas Martin and Thomas Cryer for the South, and Samuel Young for the West, are appointed as Deputations to attend the principal Meetings of your Missionary Societies.

Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you.

Signed in behalf and by order of the Conference,

JOHN HANNAH, Secretary.

Newcastle-upon-Tyne, August 13th, 1840.

ADDRESSES OF THE COMMITTEE FOR GUARDING OUR PRIVILEGES, TO THE QUEEN, PRINCE ALBERT, AND THE DUTCHESS OF KENT, ON OCCASION OF HER MAJESTY'S MARRIAGE.

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY,

WE, Your Majesty's dutiful and Ioyal subjects, the undersigned Ministers and Members of the Society of Wesleyan Methodists, being the Committee to whom the charge of its civil rights and duties is officially confided, most humbly crave permission to approach Your Majesty, and to unite with other classes of Your Majesty's joyful people in the tender of unfeigned congratulations on Your Majesty's recent marriage with His Royal Highness the Prince Albert of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha.

Gratefully do we hail the testimonies which are publicly given to the personal qualities and virtues of Your Majesty's illustrious Consort; nor can we forget that His Royal Highness is entitled to no small portion of hereditary renown, as the descendant of a memorable ancestry, who provided a most seasonable protection in the hour of jeopardy and dismay for the Great Champion of the Protestant Reformation. We devoutly trust that He who is the Supreme Governor of Nations, and the especial Guardian of Christian Princes, has guided Your Majesty to this happy alliance,—an alliance which yields so fair a promise of comfort to Your Majesty's Royal Person, and of security and peace to the interests of Your Majesty's extensiye dominions.

Our prayers are joined with the prayers of Your Majesty's other faithful subjects that the Lord of Heaven and Earth may bless Your Majesty with many and happy days; that He may direct all Your Majesty's counsels and proceedings; and that, at a far distant period, He may, through our Saviour's infinite merits, receive Your Majesty to that better world where no glory fades.

In the Address which we thus presume to offer to Your Majesty, we are assured that we express the most cordial sentiments and wishes of the Society of Wesleyan Methodists both at home and abroad.

The above Address, signed by the President and Secretary of the Conference, and by more than eighty other Members of the Committee of Privileges, was transmitted to the Secretary of State for the Home Department, from whom the following reply was received:—

" Whitehall, April 8th, 1840.

"SIR,

"I have had the honour to lay before the Queen the loyal and dutiful Address, on the occasion of Her Majesty's nuptials, from the Ministers and Members of the Society of Wesleyan Methodists, being the Committee to whom the charge of its civil rights and duties is officially confided.

"And I have to inform you, that Her Majesty received the Address very graciously.

"I have the honour to be, Sir,
"Your obedient Servant, (Signed) "NORMANBY.

"Rev. J. Beecham, Wesleyan Mission-House, Hatton-Garden."

II.

TO HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE ALBERT OF SAXE-COBURG AND GOTHA.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR ROYAL HIGHNESS,

WE, the undersigned Ministers and Members of the Society of Wesleyan Methodists, being the Committee to whom the charge of its civil rights and duties is officially confided, beg leave to express our sincere congratulations on the marriage of Your Royal Highness with our Most Gracious Sovereign Queen Victoria.

The illustrious ancestry from which Your Royal Highness is descended, gained itself an enviable distinction in the earlier periods of the great Protestant Reformation, to which the civil and religious liberties of this country are so deeply indebted. We rejoice in the memory of that ancestry, and in the fair fame of Your Royal Highness's personal character and virtues; and we gladly unite with Her Majesty's subjects of all classes in bidding Your Royal Highness welcome to these shores as the chosen Consort of our beloved Queen.

May Almighty God, the only Fountain of life and good, grant to Your Royal Highness length of days, and a plentiful share of all blessings, temporal, spiritual, and eternal.

In the Address which we thus presume to offer to Your Royal Highness, we are assured that we express the most cordial sentiments and wishes of the Society of Wesleyan Methodists both at home and abroad.

This Address, signed as the Address to Her Majesty, was presented by a Deputation from the Committee, to whom His Royal Highness returned the following answer:—

"It affords me much satisfaction to receive these cordial congratulations from the Ministers and Members of the Society of Wesleyan Methodists. I rejoice that the history of the illustrious House from which I have the honour to be descended, should prepossess in my favour the hearts of the British people; and I trust that this favourable impression will be confirmed by their longer experience of my character."

III.

TO HER ROYAL HIGHNESS THE DUTCHESS OF KENT.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR ROYAL HIGHNESS, WE, the undersigned Ministers and Members of the Society of Wesleyan Methodists, being the Committee to whom the charge of its civil rights and duties is officially confided, beg leave to present our sincere congratulations to Your Royal Highness on the recent marriage of Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria with His Royal Highness the Prince Albert of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha.

It is our unfeigned hope, in which we are persuaded that we partake of anticipations common also to Her Majesty's other faithful subjects, that this alliance may at all times eminently contribute to the gratification of those feelings of maternal virtue for which Your Royal Highness has been so honourably distinguished, and which cannot fail to add dignity and worth even to the most exalted station.

May Almighty God long preserve Your Royal Highness, and grant to Her Majesty in every relation all true prosperity and glory; that Your Royal Highness may thus taste the joys which spring from the attainment, in the highest degree, of the best hopes which accompanied the exercise of early solicitude and care.

In the Address which we presume in this way to offer to Your Royal Highness, we are assured that we express the most cordial sentiments and wishes of the Society of Wesleyan Methodists, both at home and abroad.

This Address, signed as the two preceding, was presented to Her Royal Highness by a Deputation from the Committee, to whom Her Royal Highness returned the following answer:—

"I beg that you, and the Society which you represent, will accept my unfeigned thanks for this most acceptable Address. As a mother, I am most grateful for the sentiments it conveys; and I most fervently unite in your prayer, that the marriage of my beloved child may be blessed in her own happiness, and in that of all her subjects of every denomination throughout her widely-extended dominions."

APPENDIX.

DOCUMENT REFERRED TO IN THE PRE-CEDING MINUTES.*

RESOLUTIONS OF THE SPECIAL MEETING OF THE MISSIONARY COMMITTEE OF REVIEW, HELD AT NEWCASTLE-UPON-TYNE, JULY 28th, 1840.

Present, REV. THOMAS JACKSON, Ex-President, in the Chair.

The Minutes of the General Missionary Committee during the last year having been read by the Secretaries, the following Resolutions were then unanimously passed:—

 On the motion of Thomas Crook, Esq., of Liverpool, seconded by Thomas Walker, Esq., of Stockton,

"That this Meeting has heard with pleasure of the progress and prosperity of the Wesleyan Missions during the past year, and expresses its high approbation of the report of the proceedings of the Committee, as now read from their Minutes; and pledges itself to use its best efforts, both individually and collectively, to remove the pecuniary embarrassment which now presses upon the Committee, by liquidating the debt which now exists, and providing means for carrying on and extending the Society's operations."

Mr. Freeman having been introduced to the Committee, and having made his statement, with reference to the Ashantee Mission, it was resolved,

II. On the motion of the REV. ROBERT NEWTON, Secretary of the Conference, and seconded by WILLIAM TURNER, Esq., of Derby, ^{*} Pages $7, 88.

"That this Committee of Review cordially approves of the determination of the General Committee, to attempt the immediate establishment of a Christian Mission in the important kingdom of Ashantee; fully recognises the necessity and propriety of providing for the commencement and early expenditure of that Mission, by a special Fund, to be raised for that purpose; and earnestly recommends that Fund, already so auspiciously begun, to the zealous and immediate support of the whole Connexion."

III. On the motion of the Rev. George Morley, seconded by Christopher Wawn, Esq.,

"That this Meeting recommends to the Conference that the thanks of the Conference be presented to the General Committee, for their very faithful and able direction of the affairs of our Missions during the past year."

IV. On the motion of the Rev. Joseph Entwisle, sen., seconded by James Wood, Esq., of Manchester,

"That this Meeting recommends to the Conference, that the cordial thanks of the Conference be presented to Thomas Farmer, Esq., and the Rev. John Scott, for their important services as General Treasurers of the Wesleyan Missionary Society during the past year, and that they be re-appointed for the ensuing year."

V. On the motion of the Rev. E. Grindrod, seconded by Mr. G. W. Longridge, of Sunderland,

"That this Meeting recommends to the Conference, that its cordial thanks be presented to the Rev. Dr. Bunting, the Rev. John Beecham, the Rev. Dr. Alder, and the Rev. E. Hoole, the General Secretaries, for their very acceptable and faithful services during the past year; and that they be re-appointed for the ensuing year."
